SOMME BATTLE REACHES CLIMAX

French and British Aim Blow After Blow at German Lines in Hopes of Breaking Through

Germans Fight Heroically and Launch Counter Attacks.

Gains Made But No Break in Lines.

Roumania Clashes With Bulgaria.

Russians Press Forward in Carpathians.

(Associated Press Cable.)

LONDON, SEPTEMBER 5.—THE BATTLE OF THE SOMME HAS NOW REACHED THE HIGH PITCH OF VIOLENCE.

Against the concentration of picked German troops, the French and British are striking blow after blow in what appears to be a supreme effort to force a way through the German line.

London today announces further substantial gains at two points north of the sector of twelve and one-half miles over which the French advanced yesterday.

The Germans are not yielding their carefully organized positions without desperate resistance, and the fighting is unceasingly severe, with heavy losses on both sides.

Last night the Germans launched a number of vigorous counter attacks, but the French War Office reports that they were beaten with heavy losses to the attackers.

The battle is being carried on under most unfavorable weather conditions.

Since the beginning of the Somme offensive, twenty-nine villages have been captured by the Allies, all of them powerfully organized.

In eastern Roumania, the first clash has occurred between the Bulgarians, who have invaded Dobrudja and the Russians, who went in from Bessarabia to assist the Roumanians.

An official Bulgarian account of the invasion says that on the first day the Roumanians were driven back, leaving hundreds of dead on the field, and that two villages near the frontier were captured.

The heaviest fighting on the eastern front is now under way southwest of Kovel.

The Russian War Office announces that in this action 4,150 prisoners were taken from Thursday to Saturday.

In the Carpathians, Russian troops are still pressing forward toward the Hungarian frontier. Petrograd reports the capture of several more mountain heights.

Fierce fighting is in progress in the Caucasus, the Russian communication says.

MUST REBATE TO 40 DEALERS

Public Utilities Commission Orders Refund After Long Fight.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., September 5.—More than forty Ohio coal dealers, who five years ago began a fight against what they alleged were excessive rates charged by the Hocking Valley Railroad for shipments from the Hocking fields, today had prospects of getting rebates totalling $7,000.

The Public Utilities Commission ordered the railroads to refund $75.78 to J. E. McElfresh, of Delaware, one of the dealers who fought the rates.

It also ordered that he be paid interest on this amount at 6 per cent from December 5, 1911, the date of the old Public Service Commission order to reduce the rate from 75 cents to 70 cents a ton.

Railroads continued to charge the increased rate pending an appeal to the Supreme Court. The order of the commission was finally affirmed by the court.

THE SECOND LEAVES CAMP

The Sixth Will Follow Tomorrow—Hough to Leave Thursday.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., September 5.—The Second Regiment, O. N. G., left today for the Mexican border. The Sixth Regiment will leave tomorrow.

General William V. McMaken, of Toledo, commandant at Camp Willis, and commanding officer of the First Brigade, will leave with the Sixth tomorrow.

Adjutant General B. W. Hough, Lieutenant Colonel of the Fourth Regiment, which left last week, will leave Thursday to join his regiment.

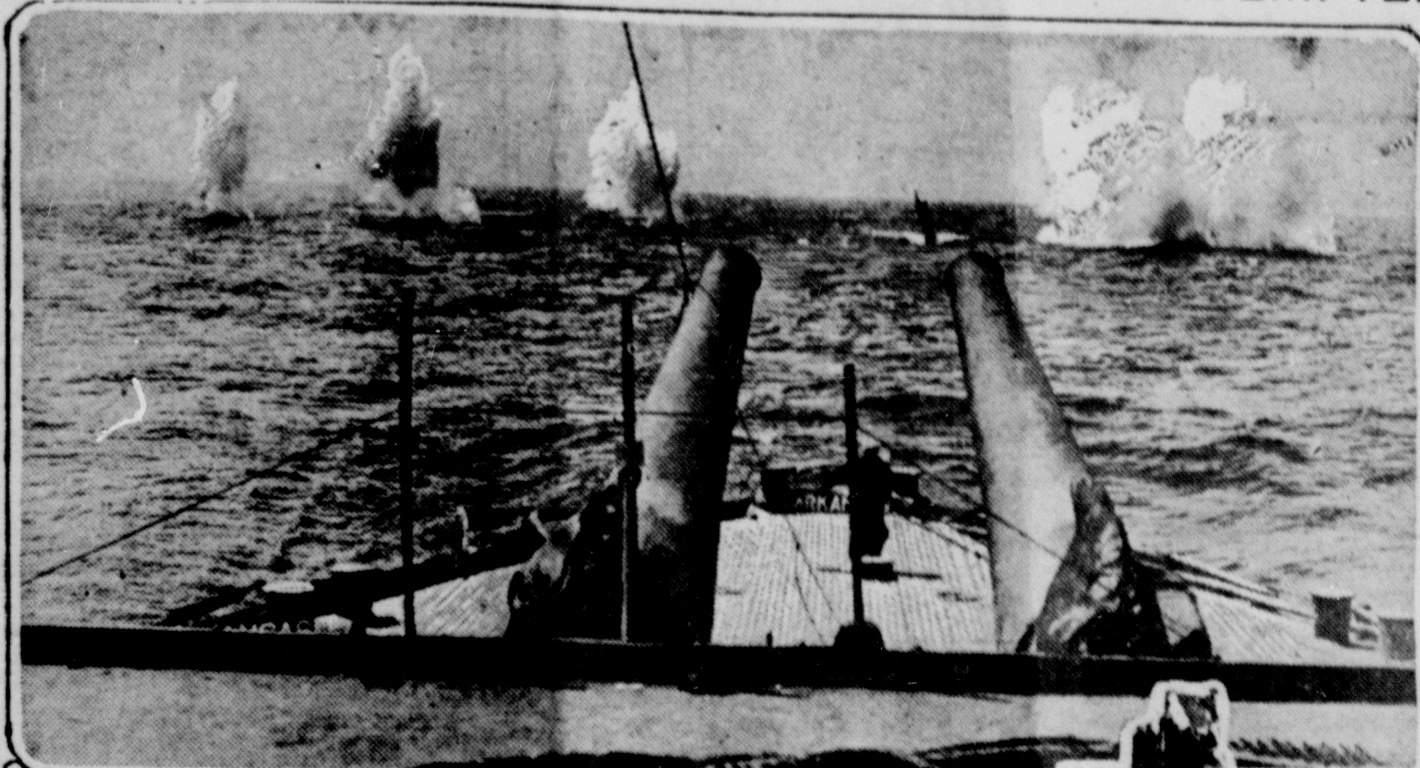

NONE FATALY HURT IN CRASH

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Colorado Springs, Colo., September 5.—A careful check today of the list of those injured when a portion of the grand stand at the Welsh-White fight yesterday collapsed, shows that none of the victims were fatally hurt.

Eighty persons are in hospitals, and a number of others are at their homes receiving treatment.

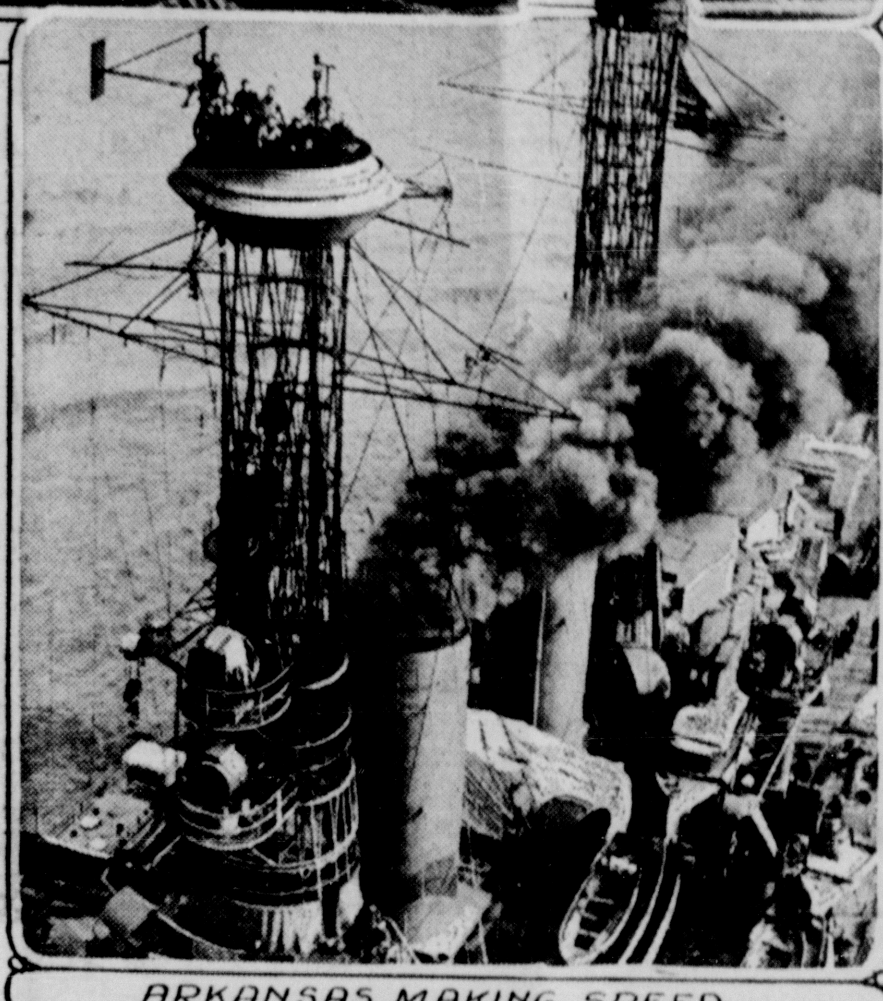

NAVAL MANEUVERS JUST COMPLETED PROVED MOST STUPENDOUS YET ATTEMPTED

SALVO FROM ARKANSAS

Rear Admiral Austin M. Knight, U. S. N., chief umpire of the recent war game between the fleets commanded by Rear Admiral Henry T. Mayo and Rear Admiral James M. Helm, in an interview at the Naval War college, of which he is president, said the maneuvers had proved to be by far the most stupendous and instructive yet undertaken. "Its course was a good deal determined," he said, "by the weather, and, on account of the southwest breeze, with its customary accompaniment of mist, vessels could not be distinguished for more than two or three miles. This enabled the red fleet to make its way through the flotillas of torpedo boat destroyers and scout vessels sent out by the blue or defending fleet. As part of the training the civilian naval recruits received they have become somewhat efficient in handling one pounders. In the target practice with the one pounders the firing was at rate of four shots to the minute, the range starting at 600 yards and gradually decreasing to 300 yards. The one pounders were mounted in the bows of motorboats and the attack was made to imitate a landing party. The pointers of the gun crews soon found it was no easy matter to score a hit with the boat rocking all about, the target constantly shifting and the range growing less as their boat approached the supposed enemy. The volunteers from the

Maine, however, made a fair record. They scored thirty-five hits out of a possible sixty. In operating the heavier guns the range was approximately 1,800 yards when the command was given to fire, and the ship moved in a direction parallel to the target. The regular gunners also got their innings, but no report of the effectiveness of their fire has been reported by the navy department, which is holding this in strict secrecy. Above are shown salvos from the Arkansas dropping all around the target; also the same battleship, which was Vice Admiral DeWitt Coffman's flagship in the maneuvers, steaming at racing speed

CONVENTION ON THURSDAY

Democrats Disappointed in Wilson's Declination.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., September 5.—While realizing that failure to secure President Wilson will not bring to Columbus as large a gathering of Ohio Democrats as was originally anticipated, State Democratic leaders looked forward to a substantial representation at the Convention Thursday.

Replies from delegates indicate that the attendance will be as large as at the June session. United States Senator Robert L. Owen, of Oklahoma, will make the principal speech opening the campaign. Senator Pomerene will be chairman.

The only duty before the convention is that of adopting a platform. No advance draft of the platform prepared has been received as yet.

One of the features of the platform, it is said, will be a point specifically recommending a measure of relief to Ohio cities laboring under financial embarrassment.

The convention is expected to advise the return to the political subdivision of the liquor license and automobile taxes, as a medium of relieving the present stringency.

Joseph Breitenstein, of Canton, secretary to Chairman Finley, arrived in Columbus today to take over his fall campaign duties.

WEBB BILL DEAD

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, September 5.—Administration leaders said late today that Senators LaFollette, Republican, and Reed, Democrat, had forced them to abandon hope of passing the Webb bill, to permit American collective selling agencies in foreign countries.

Senator LaFollette gave notice that he would filibuster the bill to death.

COMMITTEE FOR PURCHASE

Foreign Relations Committee of Senate Is Favorable.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, September 5.—The treaty for purchase of the Danish West Indies for $25,000,000 was ordered favorably returned to the Senate by the Foreign Relations Committee by a unanimous vote of senators present.

It will be reported later today, and an effort made to have it ratified before adjournment of Congress.

SLIGHT INCREASE IN THE EPIDEMIC

Three More New Cases and Five More Deaths Than Previous Day.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

New York, September 5.—There was a slight increase in the epidemic of infantile paralysis during the 24 hours ending at 10 a. m. today.

There were 43 new cases, three more than yesterday, and 21 deaths, an increase of five.

Reports from Trenton, N. J., say there are 20 new cases in the state today, making a total of 2,778.

In Freemont, Ohio, public and parochial schools were not opened today, but will be opened September 18, as a result of the infantile paralysis situation.

In Boston, the schools' opening was postponed from next Monday to September 25.

GREECE TO ENTER

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, September 5.—Diplomatic circles here received a report today, considered reliable in every way, that Greece will enter the war with the Entente Allies within a short time.

BLACKLIST HARD HIT BY SENATE

Drastic Amendments to Revenue Bill a Slap Which Disturbs Allies' Diplomats.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, September 5.—Drastic amendments to the revenue bill, striking at the Allied blacklist and British interference with American mails, were adopted today by the Senate and created consternation among the diplomatic representatives of the Allies.

In all quarters it was declared that the enactment of the amendments into law would constitute nothing less than a non-intercourse act preliminary to a commercial warfare with possibilities of far-reaching consequences.

The retaliatory amendments became law with the President's signature.

The Allies technically have nothing to protest about, but there are assurances that representations will be made if the amendments stay in the bill.

Inasmuch as the Government has decided upon a course of legislation to meet the restraint upon commerce it is generally expected the amendments will be put through.

Administration leaders who have intimate connections with the Government's foreign policy made no attempt to stay their adoption.

RACE RIOTS AT CLEVELAND

One Man Fatally Hurt in Disturbances at Lake Side City.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Cleveland, O., September 5.—Joseph Schilaxi, 19, is dying and a score were less seriously injured here today in a race riot between whites and negroes in a railroad construction camp. Schilaxi was shot.

Police stopped the battle and made numerous arrests.

UP SHE GOES A LITTLE HIGHER

Baking Companies Boost Price of Bread.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Toledo, O., September 5.—Large baking companies here today raised the price of the five-cent loaf of bread to six cents, and the ten-cent loaf to twelve cents, saying the high cost of flour necessitated it.

AMERICA WILL YIELD THE POINT

To Grant Request of Mexican Commissioners.

PARLEYS NOW UNDER WAY

Demand That American Forces Be Withdrawn From Mexican Soil to Be Granted by the American Members of the Commission—Preliminary Conferences Held in New York—The Opening Session.

New York, Sept. 5.—Conferences between American and Mexican commissioners got under way here.

The Washington administration and the de facto government of Mexico hope through the parleys to bring settlement of the past four years' friction.

The conferences here are merely preliminary to discussions of the points at issue. These later discussions will be held at New London, Conn.

The American commissioners are prepared to change their front. Preliminary knowledge by the Mexican representatives that General Funston has advised the withdrawal of American troops from Mexican soil has robbed Secretary of the Interior Lane and his associates on the commission of their trump card. It was admitted that the strongest position that the administration's men have left is insistence on adequate protection of the border, to balance the demands of the Mexican members.

Following the conference it became known that the American commissioners doubtless will accede to the main requests of the Mexican commission that the American troops be withdrawn from Mexican soil.

No reason was assigned for the sudden change of the meeting place from Portsmouth, N. H., to New London, except that the Connecticut city is more readily accessible from Washington.

WOMEN TAKING PLACES OF MEN

(Associated Press Cable.) London Sept. 5.—There are 11,600 women clerks and stenographers now employed in the British Government offices in Whitehall, a fact which gives some idea of the way the women have filled the gaps left by the men who have joined the army. And still the cry is heard for more women which leads to the belief that the demand has outstripped the supply.

Even the government departments are finding difficulty in securing the clerical assistance they require. At one time Whitehall officials could pick and choose their clerks, and the majority of those engaged were of an adaptable age—from 20 to 30—but an intelligent girl of 17 without experience can now find a place, and middle-aged women need no longer feel that they are not wanted. To meet extensions of the activities of such busy places as the war office and the ministry of munitions, it is estimated that some 200 women clerks can be absorbed every week into the official machinery.

The pay is not high, though it is more than what was regarded as a satisfactory starting salary for young girls before the war. It is, of course, far below the salary paid for similar work in the United States.

For ordinary routine work or typewriting the pay is one pound ($5) a week, with six pence (12 cents) an hour for over time. For ordinary clerical work the pay is 25 shillings ($6.25) a week, with an over time rate of seven pence. Competent stenographers start at 26 shillings a week, much may be raised to thirty after a period of satisfactory service, and the over time rate is nine pence an hour. The normal hours of work vary from 42 to 48 a week in different departments.

PAPER "CLOTH" IS USED BY GERMANS

(Associated Press Cable.) Copenhagen, Denmark, Sept. 5.—A new German textile in which paper is spun with about 20 per cent of cotton is being exhibited here.

Unspun cotton in the form of down is glued to one side of endless rolls of paper and the paper is then shorn into narrow bands, which are spun with the cotton side outwards.

Danish experts were shown paper underclothing, jerseys, sheets, bandages and horse-blankets, but the cost of production of the article is said to be too high to allow of its competing with cotton or woolen cloth under normal conditions.

"DEAD LETTERS" ON THE DECREASE

By Associated Press Dispatch. Washington, Sept. 5.—The dead letter office of the postoffice department received the greatest number of undeliverable letters and packages in 1911 when they numbered 13,614,616. Since that time there has been a decrease each year and in 1915 the number was 10,781,927. Each year there is a sale of articles found in letters for which the department is unable to find owners. The proceeds of this sale last year amounted to $38,514.

FARM NOTES

Insects As Carriers That the organisms of fire blight of the apple and pear can live for more than a week in honey dew of aphids and that the organisms can live for at least five days on peach, plum and cherry nectar, during which time they may possibly be carried to hosts susceptible to blight infection, are conclusions reached by experts studying this problem at the Ohio Experiment Station and reported in its September Monthly Bulletin. These men have also found that the blight germs will live for about three days in honey.

Flies, ants and various kinds of bees visit honey dew and flowers of different fruit trees. Thus it is possible for the blight to be carried to trees susceptible to infection.

Catch Tussock Moths Banding fruit and shade trees with some sticky substance like tanglefoot is of help in controlling the tussock moth, which is now about a full-grown caterpillar and will soon crawl down the trees to change to the pupal stage. Full-grown caterpillars are also likely to travel to other trees for no apparent reason except restlessness.

Spraying the trees with 3 to 5 pounds of arsenate of lead in 50 gallons of water is also recommended by entomologists at the Ohio Experiment Station. The latter method, however, can be used for large trees only when rather expensive spraying outfits are accessible. Paris green may be substituted for arsenate of lead, but may burn tender foliage.

This caterpillar is especially abundant on shadetrees, but also attacks the common fruit trees. The eggs, laid about the middle of September, do not hatch till spring. Banding the trees now prevents invasion by caterpillars coming from nearby trees.

For Exhibiting Potatoes. Exhibits at county and state fairs have been suggested as an important means for the improvement of varieties of potatoes. Although some counties list more than a hundred varieties, only seven are of sufficient importance to warrant expensive planting, according to S. N. Green, of the Ohio Experiment Station. These are: Beauty of Hebron, Carmen No. 3, Early Ohio, Early Rose, Green Mountain, Irish Cobbler and Rural New Yorker No. 2.

In the Station's Monthly Bulletins for August and September he gives suggestions regarding exhibits and identifications of varieties. The points in potato judging are also included.

Tragedy Sequel to Crap Game. Dayton, O., Sept. 5.—Grant Foster shot and instantly killed Robert Buckner, when the two met on the street and when Buckner refused to give Foster 50 cents the latter had won from him in a crap game. The principals are negroes. Foster was arrested.

Injured In Collision. Newark, O., Sept. 5.—C. H. Morgan is in a serious condition and Martin Bowers was rendered unconscious when Morgan's motorcycle collided with Bowers' bicycle at the fair grounds. Morgan is believed to be internally injured. Bowers is not seriously hurt.

Minister Fatally Injured. Columbus, Sept. 5.—Much concern is felt over the condition of Rev. Dr. Isaac F. King, who fell on the steps of the First Methodist Episcopal church Sunday and sustained a broken rib. Dr. King is eighty-two years old, and because of his advanced age the accident, it is thought, may result fatally.

Died In Ambulance. Columbus, Sept. 5.—Six-year-old Jeannette Mooney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Mooney of Milan, O., died in an ambulance en route to Protestant hospital, where she was being taken after the automobile driven by her aunt, Miss Harriet Mooney, had bumped into a Pennsylvania freight train at a crossing here.

Old School Head Enjoined. Lancaster, O., Sept. 5.—Judge Reeves in the common pleas court decided against Professor S. H. Layton, who has been school superintendent here for several years, and enjoined him from interfering with the newly elected superintendent, Professor J. R. Clements of Columbus. It is understood that this will not settle the matter, as Professor Layton will contest the decision.

PIECES OF MAIL HANDLED IN YEAR

By Associated Press Dispatch. Washington Sept. 5.—The growth of the postoffice department of the United States is best illustrated by estimates made by department officials of the number of pieces of mail of all kinds handled. The first estimate recorded is 124,173,480 pieces in 1847, no account having been kept of earlier years from the beginning of the service in 1789. The latest estimate was that of '913 when 18,567,445,160 pieces were handled.

FINE ART TREASURE

(Associated Press Cable.) Budapest, Hungary, Sept. 5.—The Museum of Fine Arts has acquired what is declared to be a treasure in an almost unknown bronze statue of Leonardo da Vinci, executed by himself. The Hungarian sculptor Stephen Ferency bought the bronze in Italy early in the 19th century without knowing that Da Vinci was its creator. It was not until after Ferency's death that the authenticity was established.

STEVENSON WRITES "THE ANCIENT SIN"

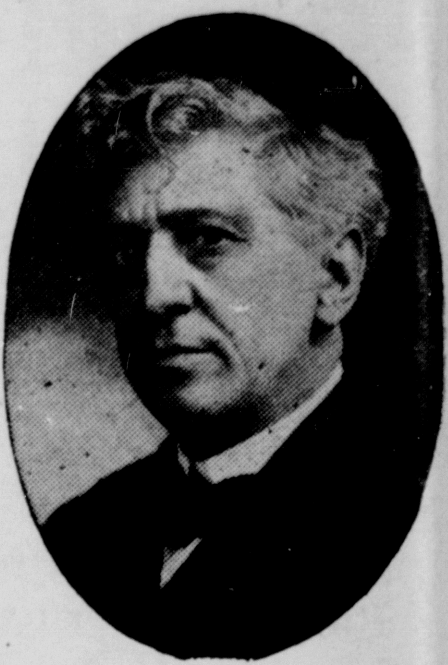

Washington friends of Mr. Burton E. Stevenson, Chillicothe Librarian, and who read his famous novel "Little Comrade" issued in 1914, will be interested in the following excerpt from the Chillicothe News: "The big feature serial of McClure's Magazine for the coming winter will be from the pen of Burton E. Stevenson, city librarian and well-known novelist. Mr. Stevenson has called the story 'The Ancient Sin' but it is possible that this title may be changed before the story begins. The McClure picture corporation is also negotiating with Mr. Stevenson for the moving picture rights for the story."

While their may friends regret to have them leave Ross county, are pleased to learn they will locate in so good a county as Fayette, the farm they have leased, being one of that famous county's best.—Frankfort Sun.

Dr. Frederick Blankner, the Specialist, Impresses Large Audiences With His Lecture on Complicated Chronic Diseases and Demonstrations of Painless Extraction of Teeth Last Saturday.

On last Saturday afternoon and evening large audiences listened with marked attention at the Court House when Dr. Frederick Blankner explained why so many people were sick and why health could be restored. It made it very plain why elimination and digestion were the prime factors of health and why defective digestion and elimination developed so much distress in the human system.

The Doctor is now at Hotel Arlington, Room No. 32, and will remain until Saturday, September 8th. The doctor came here with the very best of endorsements and during the past thirty years of experience has developed an efficiency in the successful treatment of complicated chronic diseases that very few physicians ever attain. He has garnered his wealth of knowledge by coming in direct contact with the sick and afflicted all over the United States and is a Post Graduate in the hard knocks of the school of experience and his services are valuable to all whom he accepts for treatment. Those who are afflicted in any way whatever along the line of chronic ailments of the stomach, liver, bowels, bladder, kidneys, lungs, nerves, goiter, eczema, running sores, blood poisoning etc. will indeed be acting wisely by making a little journey to room No. 32, Arlington and meet the doctor face to face in an honest, conscientious straight from the shoulder heart to heart talk and you will never know what he can or can't do for you unless you make the journey and then he may prove to be just the doctor that you so long have been wishing to meet. He has successfully treated thousands and why not you. Remember that all cases that come to the doctor do so in a spirit of discouragement because they have tried so many dietors and remedies without avail. This is not Dr. Blankner's fault and you can rest assured that until you find a treatment that is applicable to your condition that you will not find rest this side of eternity.

That is just what the doctor does, meets the cause of your ailments and assists nature in a sensible and intelligent manner. To the wise no more need be said.

All Say Dr. Blankner Is a Wonder In The Painless Extraction of Teeth

Ask anyone that witnessed the Doctor's work last Saturday and they will tell you that he evidenced the fact that he is the greatest expert that has ever visited Washington C. H.. Just think of the many ulcerated teeth that he operated on, as well as many roots all with a perfect unanimity and exact precision and skill. All smiled and said God Bless the Doctor. On Sunday Mr. Wilbur Brown, with his wife and two children who lives on Western Ave., called at room No. 32. His daughter who was the first to sit down in the easy going rocking chair and who always fainted when going to a dentist and a tooth that many of the local dentists refused to extract. Now remember this is no reflection on the dentists, but the tooth was a very hard one. In fact the roots were deeply imbedded and badly ulcerated and was a very difficult piece of work which required an expert. What happened? In a few moments the tooth was taken out and she smiled and said God Bless the Doctor. The other daughter had two badly ulcerated teeth. Mrs. Brown said that last winter she had to sit up with her for a month and never did she see a person that suffered so much. There is no greater pain than an ulcerated tooth will produce. Well, in a few moments the teeth were taken out when she said: "My, how I wish you would stay in the city." She said mama has some she wants out. Well mama sat down and in a few moments six were taken out, all she had. When they left the office they were smiling and said: "Doctor, everyone in our neighborhood knows what a time we have had and rest assured there will be many that will come to you. Mrs. Mary Rankin, 608 E. Market street, was indeed glad that Dr. Blankner came to town. She had out her diseased teeth and was more than pleased.

Diseased teeth are dangerous in many ways. Now you have an opportunity that you can't duplicate. Will you improve it until Saturday, September 8th, Office hours, 9 a. m. to 8 p. m. Doctor's wife in attendance.

FAVORITE COPS

(By American Press) Cedar Point, O., Sept. 5.—With a left on the jaw, followed quickly by a right to the pit of the stomach, Champion Johnny Kilbane put George Chaney of Baltimore down to stay after 2 minutes and 42 seconds of the third round had elapsed. Referee Hinkle, in the ring, immediately after he had counted Chaney out, said that the blow that did the damage traveled less than six inches.

The result was never in doubt after the first minute of the first round. Kilbane started right out in front and steadily increased his lead in the battle until the eventual termination of the third round. He hit Chaney whenever and wherever he cared and really made the Baltimore challenger look ridiculous with his left hand constantly reaching Chaney's face. There were few vacant seats in the large arena.

The Big Problem

The Congress of the United States—the House by such an overwhelming majority that party lines were entirely obliterated and the Senate by a margin which clearly marked out party divisions—has enacted the Adamson eight-hour day law applying to inter-state common carriers.

The threatened strike of railroad employees has been averted, the strike order has been rescinded and the menace has passed.

Anyone, however, who permits the action of Congress to produce a feeling of security, to inspire the belief that any permanent remedy has been provided is certain to realize that he is mistaken and that the relief furnished by the enactment of the Adamson law is only temporary.

Perhaps the enormity of the threatened calamity warranted Congress in taking the action which it did but the great majority of the people of the United States do not accept kindly the spectacle of the Congress of the nation being bludgeoned into the enactment of any law.

If Congress does not follow up the work of last Friday and Saturday with legislation which will make a recurrence of the conditions, that so disturbed the nation, impossible in the future, it will lack sadly in discharging its duty.

Compulsory arbitration, at least pertaining to the great common carriers of the land, and plans that will insure, no matter what the differences between operators and employees may be, the operation of the great commerce carrying railroads, should be enacted into law at once.

The nation should not wait until another crisis arises.

No doubt Congress was actuated by the desire to avert the calamity of a nation-wide strike and no doubt each side of the controversy, which developed the crisis, has much of merit in its contentions, perhaps the eight-hour law is entirely proper and again it may be an injustice to the railroad companies and to the shippers of the country, but those are not the disturbing features.

If the railroad brotherhoods can force Congress to, within a fixed time limit, do exactly as they dictate, why can't other organizations do the same thing?

If twenty per cent of the railroad employees can do that what becomes, if conditions are allowed to remain so that is possible, of the power and the majesty of the government of all the people?

It is inconceivable that the national administration proposes to allow such conditions to exist.

The temporary relief afforded by the Adamson law must be followed by such legislation as will protect the shippers of the country from an unjust increase in rates and by such legislation as will forever make it impossible for any individual or individuals to take the government by the throat and compel it to do as they dictate.

Roumania's Part

The tremendous effect of Roumania's entrance into the European conflict is becoming more apparent with each day's happenings.

There are a number of occurrences since Roumania's entrance, each of which critics will class as the most vital. Every one of a half dozen changes made necessary by Roumania's act seem vital in their effect.

One of the changes brought about is the attitude of Greece. When Roumania declared war on the side of the Entente powers, Bulgaria was forced, by military necessity, to further violate the neutrality of Greece and to commit such flagrant violations that the Greek populace became aroused and demanded, if not an actual declaration of war against Bulgaria and Turkey, such neutrality as favored markedly the Entente powers. The Greek monarch was forced to comply with demands of the populace and Greece now in every way save by actual declaration of war, is enlisted with the Entente powers.

Roumania's entrance into the war has opened the door in the rear of the Central powers and permitted their enemies to come in behind them. With Roumania neutral the situation was not unlike that of a man who forced into hallway is able to keep his pursuers in front of him and beat off their attacks. When the door behind him is thrown open, however, he is compelled to flee or suffer defeat.

That Roumania, with dreams of control in the Balkans, will be of tremendous assistance to the Entente powers, is beyond dispute. The forcing back of Turkey and Austria and the ultimate attack upon and seizure of Constantinople and the Dardanelles seems nearer to realization than ever before.

With Roumania's entrance into the war only seven nations of all continental Europe are without the vortex of war—really only six because Greece, in every way save formally, is involved in the conflict.

The civilization of the old world has been terribly wounded and the red blood which flows from those wounds has overrun almost the entire continent of Europe.

Poetry For Today

THE MAN WHO WINS.

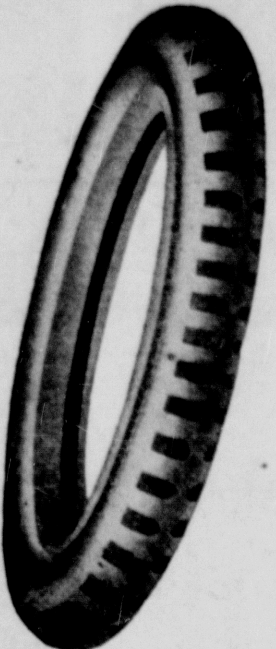

The man who wins is an average man;
Not built on any particular plan.
Not blest with any peculiar luck—
Just steady and earnest and full of pluck
When asked a question he does not "guess"—
He knows, and answers "No" or "Yes;"
When set a task that the rest can't do
He buckles down till he puts it through.
Three things he's learned; that the man who tries
Finds favor in his employer's eyes;
That it pays to know more than one thing well;
That it doesn't pay all he knows to tell.
So he works and waits, till one fine day
There's a better job with bigger pay
And the men who shirked whenever the could
Are bossed by the man whose work made good.
For the man who wins is the man who works,
Who neither labor nor trouble shirks
Who uses his hands, his head, his eyes;
The man who wins is the man who tries.

THE MAN WHO FAILS.

The man who fails is the sort of a chap
Who always is looking around for a snap
Who neglects his work to regard the clock;
Who never misses a chance to knock
He is grouchy and slow when work begins;
When it's time to quit he jokes and grins.
He's always as busy as busy can be
When he thinks the boss is around to see.
He believes that a "pull" is the only way
By which he can ever draw bigger pay;
And he sulks and growls when he sees his plan
Upset by the "push of another man."
He's on the job when he draws his pay,
That done, he soldiers his time away
While the men who tackle their jobs with vim
Keep pushing and climbing ahead of him.
For the man who fails has himself to blame
If he wastes his chance and misses his aim;
He'd win if he'd use his hands and wits—
The man who fails is the man who quits.

BAD SMASH

(By American Press)

Cincinnati, Sept. 5.—Johnny Aitken in a Peugeot assumed a lead over Dario Resta in a Peugeot at the one hundred and sixty-eighth mile and won the first 300 mile sweepstakes at the new Sharonville track. Wilbur D'Alene in a Dusenbury was second, while Frank Galvin, far behind, drew down third money with a Sunbeam. One accident marred the day's sport. Gilbert Anderson, in a Stutz, while in the stretch on the one hundred and sixty-eighth mile, skidded and dived into the fence. His car turned turtle and he was dangerously injured. His mechanician, Bert Shields, suffered a fracture of the thigh and internal injuries, and his recovery is doubtful.

Aitken's time for the race was 3 hours, 5 minutes and 27 seconds, an average of 97.06 miles per hour.

YOUNG FIRE BUG

(By American Press)

Columbus, Sept. 5.—Confessions of a juvenile pyromaniac followed some sensational rescues affected at the burning of a rooming house at Belle and Broad streets. The boy who confessed to setting the building aflame is Emil Haggi, four and a half years old, son of Charles Haggi. It was Mr. Haggi who rescued two women from the flames by going up the side of the building, using only his toes and fingers and without the aid of ropes or ladders.

BANDITS RESPONSIBLE

(By American Press)

Laredo, Tex., Sept. 5.—Twenty-five Mexican soldiers and eleven passengers were killed when a Constitutional train was wrecked by bandits claiming allegiance to Carrero Torres, according to advices reaching the border. The bandits butchered the train guards and carried away everything moveable, these advices said. The wreck occurred between San Luis and Tampico, below Cardenas.

LEPER COLONY FOR HOLLAND

Plans on Foot to Found District in the Veluwe Region.

Amsterdam.—Holland is to have a leper colony. The country is exposed to the leprosy danger owing to the great traffic with its East and West Indian colonies, and there are estimated to be roughly between thirty and forty sufferers from the disease already within its borders.

Plans are on foot to found such a colony in the Veluwe region, between Epe and Heerde.

Gives Skin to Save Wife.

Tulsa, Okla.—To save the life of his wife who was believed to be fatally injured by a gasoline explosion at her home in this city recently, H. L. De Witt submitted to the removal of 160 square inches of cuticle which was at once grafted on the wounds of his wife, who is in a hospital. The grafting was successful and Mrs. De Witt will recover.

BORROWED MONEY MAY PAY "WHITE WINGS" FOR WORK

No Provision Made for the Cleaning of Up town Streets and Council Is to Endeavor to Provide Means at Adjourned Session Thursday Night.

No business was transacted at the Monday night session of the City Council because it was Labor Day, and after reading the minutes and discussing the problem of cleaning the up town streets, council adjourned until Thursday night of this week, when one of the matters considered will be the raising of funds to pay the "white wings" on the up town streets.

The "white wings" were removed from the street cleaning work last Friday because no funds remained with which to pay for the work, and at the Monday night session it was announced that no provision had been made in the semi-annual appropriation to take care of the work.

Solicitor Gregg stated that the only way he knew of was to issue bonds to pay for the work. Council agreed to think the matter over until the next session.

Meanwhile no cleaning of up town streets is taking place and the filth is rapidly accumulating and the streets are becoming on a par with the paved residence streets of the city, many of which have not been cleaned since they were completed last year.

FOUR AFFIDAVITS IN MAYOR'S COURT

As the result of a series of scraps which started on the ball grounds, Sunday afternoon, and wound up on the Columbus pike one mile east of this city, four affidavits were filed before Mayor Oster Sunday evening. Chas. Runnels filed an affidavit against Jesse Bonecutter; Jesse Bonecutter filed an affidavit against Dick Runnels; Jesse Bonecutter filed an affidavit against Arthur Pickens and Fred Van Gundy filed an affidavit against Press Grandle.

Pickens waived examination and was held to the grand jury under $100 bond. The other three men were to face Mayor Oster Tuesday.

BOY CONFESSES TO GRAVE CHARGE

William Collins, aged 16, of Xenia, was picked up in this city Monday after endeavoring to pass a bad check on John Worrel, and later admitted the crime. The young man apparently did not realize the gravity of the crime, and at first denied guilt. However he later confessed to Sheriff Jones that the check was worthless. It was for the sum of $6.68, made payable to W. H. Wilkins and bore the name of "Mrs. O. D. Bennett". It was on the Farmers & Traders Bank of Jamestown.

The boy's mother was communicated with and was overjoyed to learn that her son, who had run away from home, was safe, but when she learned of the crime she became hysterical.

LYCEUM NUMBERS PROVING WINNERS

Two of the attractions which the Washington Lyceum Course committee has booked for the excellent course this winter, have made eminently good in nearby cities during the past few weeks.

One of the attractions—Miss Gay Zalona McLaren, a gifted impersonator and entertainer, appeared at the Greenfield Chautauqua, and was pronounced equal to any number of the entire chautauqua.

The second was Dr. William A. Colledge, native of Edinburgh, Scotland, and among America's foremost men of letters, who appeared at the Circleville chautauqua and made a profound impression upon all who heard him. The Circleville Herald, speaking of Dr. Colledge, says: "He is a fine talker with marvelous flow of language and is one of the best platform orators on the stage today."

AUTOS MUST SHOW TWO WHITE LIGHTS

Driving automobiles by the use of a spot light, without displaying the usual headlights, will not be tolerated in this city, it was announced Tuesday morning.

Autos must show two white lights in front, and if the spot light is used without proper headlights, the driver violates a state law and is liable to fine.

Mayor Oster's attention also was called to speeding automobiles.

AUTO IS WRECKED IN MAKING TURN

A Ford automobile, driven by Dr. V. P. Smith, was badly wrecked Monday night, while making the turn from Washington avenue into Columbus avenue while going at a good rate of speed.

The machine crashed into the upon the sidewalk, and struck the retaining wall in front of Hon. Frank C. Parrett's residence, smashing the machine very badly.

MINISTERS MEET AND ORGANIZE FOR COMING CAMPAIGN

Noted Missionary Worker Addresses Ministers and Organization Is Made for Layman's Missionary Convention to Be Held Here in October.

The monthly session of the Fayette County Ministerial Association was held at the Y. M. C. A. Monday.

The return missionary from Africa now National Secretary of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, Mr. Elbert L. McCreary gave an interesting description of the missionaries work. He spoke of the language, the habits, the customs, the social life and the moral life of these undeveloped people. They have no commercial life, no industrial life, not a factory nor a printing press anywhere.

After his address Mr. Patton invited us out to dinner.

When all were sufficiently refreshed we effected an organization preparatory to the coming Laymen's Missionary Convention to be held here in October.

The officers are chairman, A. J. Walker; vice-chairman, Rev. J. V. Stone; secretary, H. L. Spray; treasurer, G. S. Threlkeld, Jeffersonville.

The chairman of the several committees were chosen as follows: Publicity committee and committee on delegates, M. E. Hitchcock; chairman finance committee, D. S. Craig, chairman; committee on the pulpit exchange, Walter Patton committee on the arrangements, J. H. Hicks, chairman; committee on statistics, Prof. Wm. McClain, chairman.

The Ministerial Association began arrangements for the union evangelistic services.

An evangelistic commission was formed with Walter Patton chairman, and one member from each church to be appointed by the pastor.

Rev. R. G. Reynolds, the pastor of McNair Memorial Presbyterian church was presented and duly installed a member of the organization.

In Social Circles

Miss Martha McCoy of Bloomingburg gave a musicale with her pupils in piano which was both appreciated and enjoyed by the parents and a limited number of friends Saturday afternoon.

Miss McCoy is herself a decidedly brilliant pianist and the excellent work of the pupils was most creditable to her training. Pupils taking part in the program were Misses Aileen Rogers, Doris McClellan, Ruth Pugsley, Anna Grace McCoy.

Miss Helen McCoy added entertaining readings to the program and Miss Martha McCoy responded to requests for piano numbers.

Mrs. J. W. McCoy and Mrs. Chas. McCoy assisted in serving light refreshments at the close of the program.

Mrs. Loren Sever gave a beautiful birthday party Monday afternoon in honor of the sixth birthday of her little daughter Marjorie. She was assisted by Mrs. J. D. Wagley.

A pink and white color scheme was effectively carried out in the decorations, clusters of pink and white cosmos, predominating.

A delicious luncheon was served and the children's delight centered in the birthday cake with blazing pink and white candles.

A jolly party composed of Mr. and Mrs. Caryle Graves, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Graves and daughter Doris, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Moots, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Graves and daughter Donna, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Miller, Misses Dorothy Miller, Minnie and Lucy Graves, Donald Moots, Harvey and Luther Graves enjoyed a delightful day at Monroe Falls Sunday.

A sumptuous spread at noon was the great event of the day.

Mrs. Harry D. Taylor was given a surprise party in honor of her birthday, Monday evening that was one of the largest and most successful surprises among the many which have been tendered in the community.

Over a hundred neighbors and friends from town and all parts of the county assembled at the Taylor home east of town with baskets laden with picnic delicacies. Long tables were set on the large lawn and lighted by machine lamps and lanterns. The elegant picnic spread was a record breaker and later in the evening ice cream and lemonade served.

The occasion was one of great pleasure to both honor guest and guests.

Advance Fall Modes

Coats

This season's styles in Coats are meeting with instant approval. Never before have the designers given us styles that are adapted to each and every figure.

The Coats

are quite full and as a rule hang from the shoulders, although on some we find the line broken by the large loose belt.

Many new collars are given this season that are especially smart, with style characteristics as unusual as they are becoming.

There are many new materials added to the already favored line of Cloakings, among which Bolivia Velour, Eclat Priscilla Velour, Wool Velour and a number of new fancy cloths are especially popular.

The colors are practically the same as found in the Suits. Your special attention is directed to our

$10 and $25 COATS

Others from $5.00 to $85.00.

Millinery!

Our Advanced Showing of

is winning approval. We have made special effort to meet the growing demand for early Fall Hats moderately priced and that will take care of the between seasons at small outlay. You will appreciate these Hats at

$2.50 and $4.50

BLOUSES AND WAISTS

Owing to the special demand for Waists we are placing on display every day many new and wonderful styles. Special attention is called to our much favored

Georgette Blouses
$5.00 to $8.50.

Suits

Fashion has decreed Suits to be altogether distinctive in style from those of the previous season.

Coats will be quite a little longer fitted slightly at the waist line, with very full skirts.

Skirts will be worn a little longer and will hang in soft folds from the waist line. The materials especially favored are the beautiful new Wool Velours, Broadcloths, Gabardines, Poplins and many new fancy Woisted fabrics. The colors of the new fall shades will be Plum, Burgundy, Serpent, Field Mouse, Catawba and Gazelle.

Especial attention is called to our two special lines of Suits at

$15.00 and $25.00

Others range $12.50 to $65.00.

Are You Going Away to School?

Heretofore little effort has been made to supply the needs of the college girl, but this season we have exerted every effort to provide just the right things for her wardrobe.

ALLIES PUSH BACK GERMANS

Combes, In Somme Sector,
Rendered Untenable.

IMPORTANT POINTS SEIZED

Five Thousand Prisoners and Several Villages Taken in the Allies' Latest Operations—Roumanians Advancing Along the Transylvania Border. Heavy Fighting On the Russian Front—Engagements Elsewhere.

London, Sept. 5.—Following up their strong offensive against the Germans north and south of the Somme river in France, the Anglo-French forces again have driven their lines forward and captured important German positions.

South of the Somme the village of Soyecourt and part of the village of Vermandovillers have been captured, while seemingly more important still the French have made fresh progress east of the village of Forest, which lies one and one-half miles southeast of the railroad town of Combes—a gain which, taken with the capture of Guillemont on Sunday, seemingly outflanks Combes and apparently renders it untenable. More than 5,000 Germans have been made prisoners north and south of the Somme during the last two days.

On the British right wing progress is reported north of Palimont farm, while a German counter attack north west of Moquet farm was repulsed. In the Verdun sector Paris records a fresh gain near Fleury.

Berlin, in admitting the claims of British and French successes in the fighting of Sunday in the Somme region, says the battling over the eighteen mile front from Beaumont to the Somme was of the greatest ferocity. The Germans held their ground at Thiepval, north of Pozieres and near Glincy, but Guillemont village and wood were lost, as likewise was Glincy, but a counter attack of the Germans won back a portion of the latter town, the Germans say.

Again there is heavy fighting on the front in Russia west and southwest of Lutsk and north of Zborow and near Brezany, in Galicia, with the Russians generally the aggressors. Petrograd controverts the assertion of Berlin that the Russians obtained only local successes near Brezany by the declaration that the Russians won a victory over the Teutons here and took 2,641 prisoners.

In the Carpathian region, according to Petrograd, the Russians have captured an entire series of heights and are advancing to the Hungarian frontier.

All along the Transylvania front the Roumanians continue to press their advantage against the Austro-Hungarians. Here they have captured several additional towns and now are said to be bombarding the town of Hermannstadt, which is second in importance only to Kronstadt. The German and Bulgarian forces are attacking along the entire front between Dobrudja and Bulgaria. Near Koemar, Berlin reports, the Roumanians were driven back with the loss of 700 men taken prisoners.

In Albania, the Italians east of Avlona have taken the villages of Kutai and Brizar and Monte Gradist.

The Germans have surrendered to the British Dar-Es-Salaam, Germany's chief seaport in East Africa.

Considerable fighting is in progress in the Austro-Italian theater, but without any important changes in terrain having occurred.

DECISION GIVEN TO CHAMPION

Referee's Ruling Displeases
Followers of White.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Sept. 5.—Freddie Welsh retained his title of champion lightweight pugilist of the world after going the full scheduled twenty rounds with Challenger Charlie White of Chicago. Referee Billy Roche of New York awarded Welsh the decision on points.

As the gong sounded at the close of the twentieth round Roche stood for several moments as if undecided. He then reached out both hands toward the boxers, and many of the spectators believed he was about to award a draw. Suddenly Welsh rushed over to Roche and placed his glove in the referee's hand, while the official appeared to be reaching for White. The next instant jubilant friends of the champion swarmed into the ring.

When Referee Roche announced his decision the challenger's adherents appeared for the moment spellbound. Then began a fusillade of cushions from all directions at the referee. He was rushed through the crowd by friends to a waiting automobile.

From a spectacular standpoint the battle was considered one of the poorest that has ever been fought for the highest ring honors in the lightweight division. For fully two-thirds of the time the fighters were locked in a succession of clinches, pushing each other back and forth about the ring. For this many spectators thought Welsh was largely to blame.

Throughout the contest scarcely a blow was struck by either man that did any damage. Welsh did most of the leading.

KEPT BUSY

(By American Press)

Stockholm, Sweden, Sept. 5.—The fear expressed in government circles here that belligerent naval operations in the Baltic this summer would place a heavy burden upon the neutrality of Sweden seems to have been amply justified by the events of the past few weeks. The Swedish navy, small but efficient, has worked night and day to keep the territorial waters free of infringement, but despite this vigilance submarines and stealthy destroyers of the warring powers have slipped into the three mile limit and stolen away with a prize.

Germany has been the chief offender of late, but the Russians are guilty of poaching earlier in the summer and still hold two German steamers taken within the three mile limit despite the protests of the Swedish government.

The Germans seem to have adopted the practice of capturing a ship, taking off such supplies as they need and then releasing the vessel with a polite apology.

GREECE YIELDING

(By American Press)

Athens, Greece, Sept. 5.—The Greek government has accepted the demands of the entente powers in their entirety and agents of the French and British governments are taking over the control of postal and telegraphic communication.

Baron Von Schenk, chief director of the German propaganda in Greece, has been arrested and taken on board a cruiser of the entente allies. Sixteen additional warships of the entente powers have arrived at Piraeus.

Diplomats of the entente allies had demanded that Baron Von Schenk and sixty co-workers in behalf of the central powers, be expelled from Greece. It was reported that he had barricaded himself in his house in Athens and surrounded it with a score of armed guards and his friends to protect him.

San Antonio, Tex., Sept. 5.—The outbreak of paratyphoid in the camp of the New York guardsmen at Mission, Tex., has presented the new hospital train here an opportunity for a test trip. It left today for the Brownsville district and will bring from the base hospital for that district at McAleen all movable cases. Army officers do not regard the paratyphoid outbreak as serious. Thirty-six cases have been reported. Health reports from the Brownsville district on Sept. 2 showed the sick rate to be 2.8 per cent to the thousand. The highest rate, 5.4 per cent, was in the Fourteenth New York infantry, the heaviest sufferer from paratyphoid.

LAWYER IS SHOT ON LONELY ROAD

New York Police Investigating
the Mystery.

New York, Sept. 5.—Police combed the Van Cortlandt park district for two men who, it is claimed, stepped out of the brush by the side of a lonely road and shot and killed Dwight Dilworth, a lawyer, as he sat in his automobile. The only story of the murder the police have is from the lips of Miss Mary McNiff, a stenographer, who was the companion of the murdered man. She was hysterical and incoherent when held by the police for examination.

First knowledge of the crime came to the police when Miss McNiff, breathless and excited, ran up to two officers some distance away and told them Dilworth had been held up and shot by two highwaymen. The officers accompanied Miss McNiff to the scene of the murder and found the Dilworth car with its wheels crumpled across the road and its headlights streaming over the field. Over the driving wheel hung the limp body of the lawyer. On the hands of the lawyer were valuable rings and in his pocket was a wallet containing a considerable amount.

MACK QUIT

(By American Press)

Cincinnati, Sept. 5.—R. A. Mack, who has withdrawn as "Law Enforcement" party candidate for governor, denied all knowledge of alleged fraud and irregularities in the nomination petitions filed in his behalf. He had nothing to do with that part of the work, he says. The petitions with the alleged irregularities have been taken up by the board of elections. The Republican campaign committee charges that 65 of the 101 petition circulators can not be found.

SAMUEL TALKS

Lewiston, Me., Sept. 5.—In an address here Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, defended the attitude of the brotherhoods and, while he praised President Wilson for his efforts to settle the controversy, he unqualifiedly denounced any attempt at legislation to compel arbitration. "The railroad brotherhoods have not refused to accept arbitration," he said. "They have declared that the eight hour workday involves a principle of human welfare that can not be disputed, and therefore can not be arbitrated. They are willing to submit every other issue, all of which are arbitrable, to a mutual satisfactory tribunal. In this position they are in accord with every organization or organism that has ever declared for the principle of arbitration."

Accident a Prelude to the Boxing Match at Colorado Springs—Nearly 100 Victims Hurled to the Hospitals, Several Having Received Serious Injuries—Authorities Begin Probe to Place the Blame.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Sept. 5.—Two hundred spectators were hurled to the ground when a portion of the bleacher seats at the Welsh-White lightweight championship fight collapsed. At least 100 persons were injured, a number seriously.

At the hospitals it was said that all of the sixty persons taken there after the accident would recover. Many were released after having their injuries dressed.

The crash came before the larger part of the crowd had arrived. Police, aided by the fire department, quickly placed the injured in automobiles and comparatively little confusion resulted and the boxing program was not delayed.

Announcement was made from the ringside that the stands had been carefully inspected before the crowd was admitted, but D. G. Johnson, commissioner of public safety, said that so far as he knew no inspection had been made by the city engineer's office, and he added that a thorough investigation would be made in an effort to fix the responsibility.

J. Elmer Johnson and Conway L. Hearne of Colorado Springs were among those seriously hurt. Others injured and taken to hospitals were: Dr. C. A. Dunbar of Philadelphia, A. E. McCoy, St. Augustine, Fla.; A. W. Jamison, Prosper, Tex.; B. R. Guilds, Detroit; A. C. Leggett and Joseph Zealan, Raton, N. M.

FIELD MARSHAL VON HINDENBURG

GENERAL VON LUDENDORFF

The Hague correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph reports that Kaiser Wilhelm dismissed General von Falkenhayn, chief of the German general staff and put Field Marshal von Hindenburg in his place because Falkenhayn was opposed to sending troops to the eastern front to meet the Roumanian invasion. Von Hindenburg urged that re-enforcements be sent to Austria and won the support of the kaiser with the result that German troops have now been rushed to the defense of Transylvania. The change in the general staff means the dismissal of thirty German generals on both fronts, the most radical change in the German army since the war began.

GLORIA'S ROMANCE

By Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Hughes

Novelized from the Motion Picture Play of the same name by George Kleine.

SYNOPSIS.

Pierpont Stafford, banker and railroad magnate, with his sixteen-year-old daughter, Gloria, is wintering at Palm Beach. Gloria is a vivacious but willful young lady who chafes under the restraining hand of a governess from whom she repeatedly escapes. Her childish capers cause young Doctor Royce to fall in love with her. She steals from her room at night and in an auto plunges into the surf where she leaves the car. Becoming lost in the everglades she falls into the hands of the Seminole Indians. She is rescued and returned to her father who had offered a reward for her return. Gloria falls in love with her rescuer, Freneau. Five years later she leaves school and meets Freneau at the theater; his attention having been occupied with her sister-in-law he has forgotten Gloria. Gloria feels that her one dream is shattered. Later Freneau persuades her to forgive him. Gloria's sister-in-law, Lois, becomes intensely jealous and Doctor Royce discovers in her an ally to assist in thwarting Freneau. Doctor Royce warns Freneau that there is another woman besides Gloria. Freneau goes sleighing with Gloria without her father's knowledge. It results in pneumonia for Gloria, whose family becomes incensed at Freneau when they learn the truth. Royce is summoned to alleviate Gloria's suffering.

Freneau was in a pitiable plight. He was about to sink away in despair, when he happened to think to say: "You offered me a reward for the rescuing of Gloria from the Indians. I refused the money then, so I thought that now — perhaps — well — I thought—"

"That's true," said Pierpont. "That suggests a way out of it. Your proposition does not appeal to my business sense, but I can do this. I'll pay you double the reward with compound interest for five years. That will square us up."

Freneau smiled with a renewal of hope, and Stafford wrote him an important check.

Freneau thanked him, promised to return the money, and left the bouquet for Gloria. As he made his way out he met Royce just coming down from Gloria's room. Freneau hated the sight of Royce for many reasons. We usually hate people we have wronged. He managed to ask how Gloria was. Royce said she was better, but not yet out of danger. A curious look came over his face as he added:

"Look here, Freneau, I don't like you a bit, but Gloria loves you a lot. I don't see why, but she does. Women are peculiar. Now, I'd rather break my own heart than hers. She wants you for a husband, and if you'll play fair and walk straight from now on, I'll do nothing to interfere with your plans. But if you play false with her, I'll—well—there's nothing I won't do to save her from you."

Freneau promised glibly that he would be an ideal lover and a model of loyalty. Royce said: "I hope so," without much hope, and "You'd better!" with rather too much emphasis. Still, Freneau had the check in his pocket, and he went back to his office with "the bacon." Mulry made him so welcome that he forgot his new troubles in the radiance of the new business plans.

But his promise to Royce was put to the test at once, for that very afternoon, when he reached his apartment, Lois appeared there. She was heavily veiled, but Freneau's valet seemed to know her. He backed out discreetly. When Lois threw off the shroud her face was terrible in its resolution.

"You shan't marry Gloria, Dick," she said. "You shan't throw me over—not for her? You shan't marry her of all the people in the world."

Freneau was tired of Lois and tired of interference. He forgot to be gentle. He laughed.

"No? And how are you going to stop me?"

Lois' cold, hard answer bowled him over: "Even Gloria can't be so crazy about you that she would marry you if I were found dead here."

Freneau stared at her aghast. He could not quite be sure of her meaning till he saw a little phial in her hand. He leaped for it. But she dodged round his desk and put it to her lips.

"Don't you come near me or you'll wish you hadn't," she cried. "If you take another step I'll swallow this."

Freneau had to temporize with the mad woman. He surrendered weakly and dropped into a chair.

"Listen to me, Lois," he pleaded. "I went to her father to borrow money. I've got to have his support or go bankrupt. If I do that I'll blow my brains out. Of course, I don't love Gloria. My heart is yours. But I can't marry you. If I marry her she won't interfere with your love and mine. We shall be all the safer. If you love me, you won't ruin me. If you don't love me, give me the phial and I'll get out of your way."

She was in so insane a mood of jealousy and longing, that she believed him. She made him swear that he spoke the truth, as if an oath or two meant anything to him. Then she suffered herself to remain his dupe, and he took her down to a taxicab, feeling sure that he was well rid of her.

When she had gone he breathed more easily. He even laughed. He had everybody working for him. His rival, Royce, was toiling to save Gloria's life. His ex-flame, Lois, was in league with him to keep up the deception. Gloria's father was lending him money. He was plainly a child of destiny.

He was so reassured by his luck that he made a holiday with Mulry, who planned to start off at once on a round of the different cities where they had branch offices for the convenience of victims who lived far from New York.

Ignorance may be bliss, but it is not preparedness. Freneau was blissful in the belief that Lois was quieted. He did not dream, nor did she, that David Stafford was awakening. When Freneau took Lois to the taxicab, she lowered her veil, but a veil is only a partial disguise at best, and it may attract attention. Neither Freneau nor Lois noted that a certain Mrs. Coleridge was passing, or that she stared hard. Mrs. Coleridge was one of the prettiest faces in Freneau's pack of discarded. She was a sort of female Freneau, but in Freneau she had met her match, because she allowed herself to be more thrilled than thrilling. He had passed on without a long pause before her shrine.

Mrs. Coleridge had seen Freneau with Lois at various tea dances, and she recognized Lois all the more readily for her veil. She was outraged in her finest sensibilities. She felt it her duty to see that Lois was punished. She did not want to appear as a complaining witness, but her righteous indignation carried her to a large hotel in whose writing room she found pen, ink, paper, envelopes, and secrecy. She dashed off a little note to David advising him that his wife was showing more interest than he might approve in a certain heart-breaker. Mrs. Coleridge neglected to sign her name. In fact, she rather disguised her handwriting, though this made little difference, since David did not know it, anyway. She dropped the little letter into a mail-box with the innocent gleam of an anarchist slipping a bomb with a time fuse under a millionaire's automobile.

The United States post office authorities carried the loaded letter to David's office for her. He opened it and read it, but could not understand it. He read it again and understood it, but could not believe it. He was about to toss it in the waste-basket, where such missives belong. He read it again. It threw him into a black pit of agony and consternation.

Now, he could, but would not, believe it. He wondered who the "heart-breaker" might be. He remembered that Lois had been fond of Freneau years before. He dismissed this suspicion with contempt. He loathed the letter. Only cowards and mischief-makers write such letters. He threw this one from him as if it were something unclean. Yet the anonymous poison gnawed away in his brain. He clenched and unclenched his hands and paced the floor, beads of perspiration dripping down his face.

At last he fought it out with himself and decided that he would trust Lois till she was proved unworthy. However, the letter seemed to whisper to him, "A little test will do no harm."

Ancient War Automobiles. Among some interesting documents in the old Bohemian city, Saaz, on the Eger river, is a picture showing an attack on the fortress Glatz, in Silesia, in which war automobiles were used. The mechanically driven cars were flat vehicles, protected by huge shields in front, in which the soldiers turned large cranks, the rotary motion of which was transferred to cog wheels and to the road wheels. It is estimated that these fifteenth century "chauffeurs" got a speed of four miles an hour out of the armored cars.

WASHINGTON WADES INTO HEIRONAMUS

Athletics Win Third Game of Series of Five With Clintons and Have Two Victories to the Clintons' One—Score 11 to 3.

RENO MAKES RECORD NOON CIRCUITS TWICE

Clinton's Powerless Before Athletics' Batting Storm—Biggest Crowd of the Season—Next Game at Wilmington Sunday.

Wading mercilessly into Heironamus' pet twisters, the Athletics Sunday afternoon started a batting storm in the second inning of their third game with the Wilmington Clintons which continued unabated throughout the entire nine frames and resulted in an overwhelming 11-3 victory for the locals.

The largest crowd of the season, estimated at 1,500, thronged Athletic park, and conditions were right for a good strong game of ball, but after the first few minutes of play, the Wilmingtons found themselves powerless to keep the pace set for them by their opponents.

Home runs, three-base hits and two-sackers became as common as houseflies, and the crack of wood on leather amounted almost to a rattle at times. The altitude attained by the Mighty Hi was mightier far than he had been known to reach heretofore; the bells tolled dimly over the Frey position in short field, and the Athletics romped and risked about the diamond as if this were the first time during the season they had been turned loose on a ball field.

Before the game had gone three innings, every strip of canvas around the outfield had been taken down to give place to automobiles, which stretched compactly from bleacher to bleacher, and not a few well-clouted balls were fished from under, inside and behind them.

Reno pitched the entire game for the Athletics and did nobly. Besides, he led his teammates in batting with a perfect percent, getting three hits and a hit-by-pitcher walk in four times up. Noon distinguished himself with two home runs. The only other homer of the game was made by Shrimper, Clinton third sacker, in the first inning and caused a little uneasiness among the Washington fans.

Bill Towel, at second, was the only new member in the local lineup, and acquitted himself very favorably, both in his position and at the bat. There was no player on the Athletic staff, in fact, that did not merit honorable mention.

The series now stands two games to one in favor of Washington. The next game will be played at Wilmington next Sunday. Should Wilmington win this, the deciding game will take place at the city having brought out the largest attendance at any one game, and it is believed Sunday's crowd here will take the ribbon.

The True View. The late James J. Hill was a man of buoyant optimism.

"Failures," he once said in an address to railway men, "are always pessimists. Successes, on the other hand, are optimists. Which is right?"

He paused, then added: "It's easier to slip down hill than to climb up, but the view, remember, is at the top."

IMPROVED CONDITIONS

At Kentucky Carlsbad Hotel, Dry Ridge, Ky.

It will prove of interest to all those who have visited the Kentucky Carlsbad Springs to know that the Hotel has been thoroughly renovated and is "spick and span" from top to bottom. The improved conditions are favorably commented on immediately upon arrival of those who have visited the Springs in the past.

Our system of baths has been wonderfully improved and, under the personal supervision of our Medical Director, we are securing the most wonderful results in the treatment of Rheumatism, Stomach, Kidney and Bladder trouble.

The general service, including meals, has been improved in keeping with the latest electrical and other appliances for the successful treatment of Rheumatism and other troubles of a similar nature.

Those who are unable to come to the Springs can secure the very best of results in Stomach, Kidney and Bladder trouble by the use of the water at home.

Kentucky Carlsbad Water is shipped in cases containing six half gallon bottles of the Natural mineral water. In addition to the above we include, in each case, one small bottle of the water fortified to be used, when required to keep the bowels open, and is very valuable in the treatment of Liver and Intestinal trouble.

To those who use the water at home, according to directions for a period of ten days to two weeks depending on the trouble for which it is taken, we guarantee that they will be satisfied with the relief secured; otherwise, we will refund all the money paid for the water.

We have just issued a new booklet—write for one.

ORE RATES HARD HIT

Inter State Commerce Commission Holds Unreasonable Rates Prevail on Ore Carrying.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, September 5.—Rates on ore from lower Lake Erie points to Ohio, Kentucky, West Virginia, and western Pennsylvania were pronounced generally unreasonable today by the Inter-State Commerce Commission.

Carriers were directed to make separate charges for dock storage and switching services.

The Commission sets up a new grouping, for which maximum rates are provided, and makes it clear that it expects its findings may require some adjustment of the through charges to points not specifically named in the new reasonable maximum rates, and leaves it to the carrier to establish charges to submit to the Commission before December.

The Commission will continue its investigation, and on April 1, by a federal order, will definitely fix the future maximum rates.

COMMISSION ON THE WAY

FESS ONLY OHIO MAN AGAINST BILL

Washington, Sept. 1.—Representative Simon D. Fess was the only Ohio member of the House who voted today against the eight-hour law for railroad brotherhood employees, which is being rushed through as a means of avoiding a strike.

Representatives Longworth, Matthews, Kearns, Switzer and Emerson were not recorded as voting. The other 16 members all voted for the bill.

Dr. Fess made a speech explaining his course. He said he was for an eight-hour day. "I cannot vote for this measure," he said, "because we foreclose the possibility of arbitration when an inevitable conflict will come again. No man is so blind as to think that this temporary measure is going to settle the controversy."

STATE AND FEDERAL OFFICERS HUNT FOR ESCAPED PLOTTER, FAY

LIEUT. ROBERT FAY

State and federal officers are making a nation wide search for Lieutenant Robert Fay, the German bomb plotter, and William Knobloch, who escaped from the federal prison in Atlanta under the disguise of electricians. Warden Zerbist of the Atlanta penitentiary said that the escape of Fay and Knobloch was the result of a carefully worked out plot and that their apprehension is going to prove difficult. No traces have been found of the famous prisoners. "Fay was a man of too much intelligence," said Warden Zerbist, "and he was too shrewd to have attempted such an escape unless he was certain that the necessary arrangements had been made to take care of him and his companion after he reached safety from the guns of the guards."

The escape of Fay and Knobloch was executed by a clever forgery. The two men, who had been working as electricians about the prison, appeared before an inner guard with a forged pass which admitted them to the new prison wing upon which 100 men work each day. They pretended they were to repair a number of lights about the grounds.

Fay, convicted in New York for conspiracy in connection with bomb plots against merchant vessels carrying munitions to the allies, was placed in the prison here on June 25, 1916, to serve a term of eight years. He is a native of Germany. He had been in this country about six months when convicted. He is thirty-six years old, but looks to be about thirty. He is of medium build, five feet ten and three-quarters inches in height, weighs 165 pounds has light brown hair, blue eyes, fair complexion, and when he escaped was wearing a mustache. He is slightly bald—a small spot—on top of his head. He is a mechanical engineer. Knobloch was convicted in Baltimore May 9, 1916.

Other nationally known speakers who are expected to appear in the Ohio Democratic campaign are Representative Oscar Underwood, Alabama; William Jennings Bryan; Vice President Marshall; Senator Kern, Indiana; Senator Ollie James, Kentucky; Senator Fletcher, Florida; Senator Salusbury, Delaware; Senator Hollis, New Hampshire.

Secretaries McAdoo and Daniels and Attorney General Gregory, of the President's cabinet, are also expected to speak in this state.

BAN ON BOATS OF SUB-TYPE

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, September 5.—To the proposal of the Entente Allies that neutrals accept the principle that all submarines are vessels of war, the United States has dispatched a reply which, it is understood, holds to the principle that the characteristics of each individual submarine must govern the case.

At the same time, advices were received that Norway, Sweden and Spain had forbidden their harbors to merchant submarines, on the ground that they were indistinguishable from war craft.

SOMME BATTLE REACHES CLIMAX

French and British Aim Blow After Blow at German Lines in Hopes of Breaking Through

Germans Fight Heroically and Launch Counter Attacks.

Gains Made But No Break in Lines.

Roumania Clashes With Bulgaria.

Russians Press Forward in Carpathians.

(Associated Press Cable.)

LONDON, SEPTEMBER 5.—THE BATTLE OF THE SOMME HAS NOW REACHED THE HIGH PITCH OF VIOLENCE.

Against the concentration of picked German troops, the French and British are striking blow after blow in what appears to be a supreme effort to force a way through the German line.

London today announces further substantial gains at two points north of the sector of twelve and one-half miles over which the French advanced yesterday.

The Germans are not yielding their carefully organized positions without desperate resistance, and the fighting is unceasingly severe, with heavy losses on both sides.

Last night the Germans launched a number of vigorous counter attacks, but the French War Office reports that they were beaten with heavy losses to the attackers.

The battle is being carried on under most unfavorable weather conditions.

Since the beginning of the Somme offensive, twenty-nine villages have been captured by the Allies, all of them powerfully organized.

In eastern Roumania, the first clash has occurred between the Bulgarians, who have invaded Dobrudja and the Russians, who went in from Bessarabia to assist the Roumanians.

An official Bulgarian account of the invasion says that on the first day the Roumanians were driven back, leaving hundreds of dead on the field, and that two villages near the frontier were captured.

The heaviest fighting on the eastern front is now under way south-west of Kovel.

The Russian War Office announces that in this action 4,150 prisoners were taken from Thursday to Saturday.

In the Carpathians, Russian troops are still pressing forward toward the Hungarian frontier. Petrograd reports the capture of several more mountain heights.

Fierce fighting is in progress in the Caucasus, the Russian communication says.

MUST REBATE TO 40 DEALERS

Public Utilities Commission Orders Refund After Long Fight.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., September 5.—More than forty Ohio coal dealers, who five years ago began a fight against what they alleged were excessive rates charged by the Hocking Valley Railroad for shipments from the Hocking fields, today had prospects of getting rebates totalling $7,000.

The Public Utilities Commission ordered the railroads to refund $75.78 to J. E. McElfresh, of Delaware, one of the dealers who fought the rates.

It also ordered that he be paid interest on this amount at 6 per cent from December 5, 1911, the date of the old Public Service Commission order to reduce the rate from 75 cents to 70 cents a ton.

Railroads continued to charge the increased rate pending an appeal to the Supreme Court. The order of the commission was finally affirmed by the court.

THE SECOND LEAVES CAMP

The Sixth Will Follow Tomorrow—Hough to Leave Thursday.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., September 5.—The Second Regiment, O. N. G., left today for the Mexican border. The Sixth Regiment will leave tomorrow.

General William V. McMaken, of Toledo, commandant at Camp Willis, and commanding officer of the First Brigade, will leave with the Sixth tomorrow.

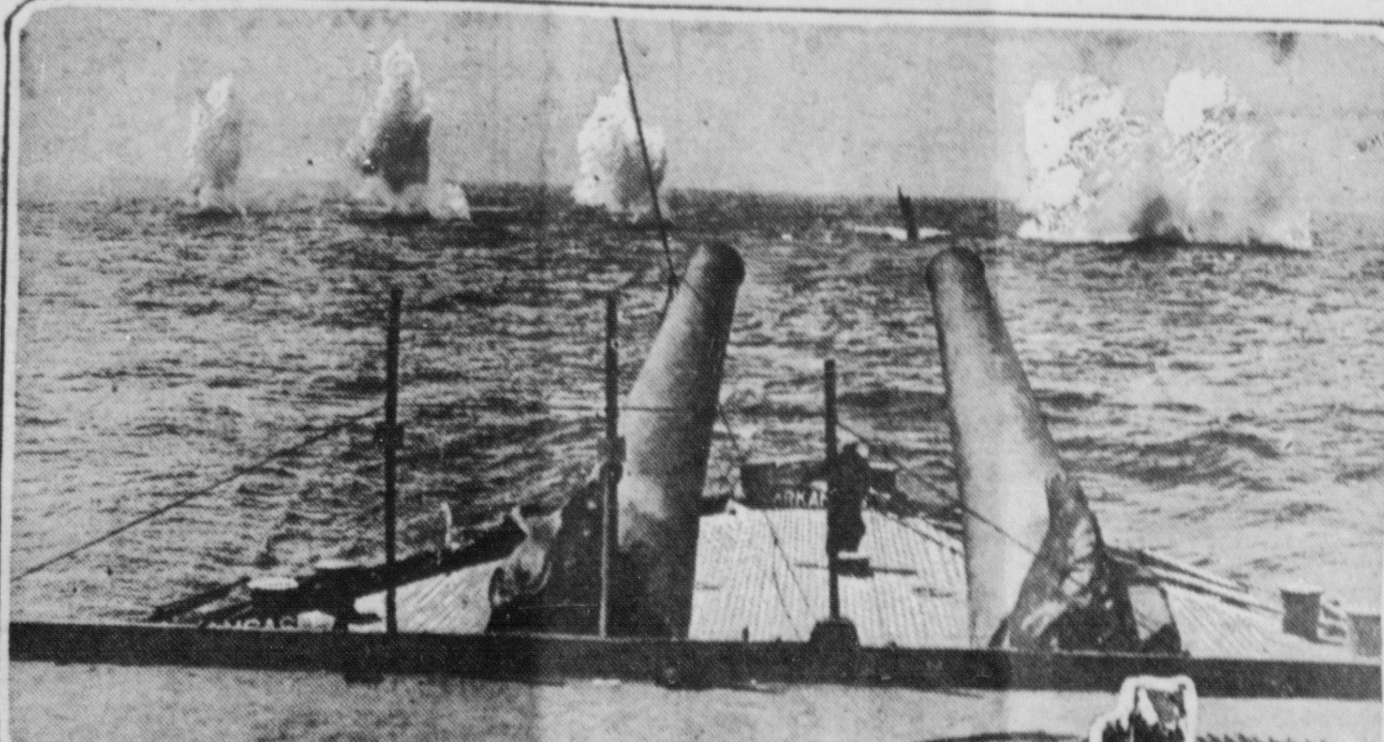

Adjutant General B. W. Hough, Lieutenant Colonel of the Fourth Regiment, which left last week, will leave Thursday to join his regiment.

NONE FATALLY HURT IN CRASH

By Associated Press Dispatch. Colorado Springs, Colo., September 5.—A careful check today of the list of those injured when a portion of the grand stand at the Welsh White fight yesterday collapsed, shows that none of the victims were fatally hurt.

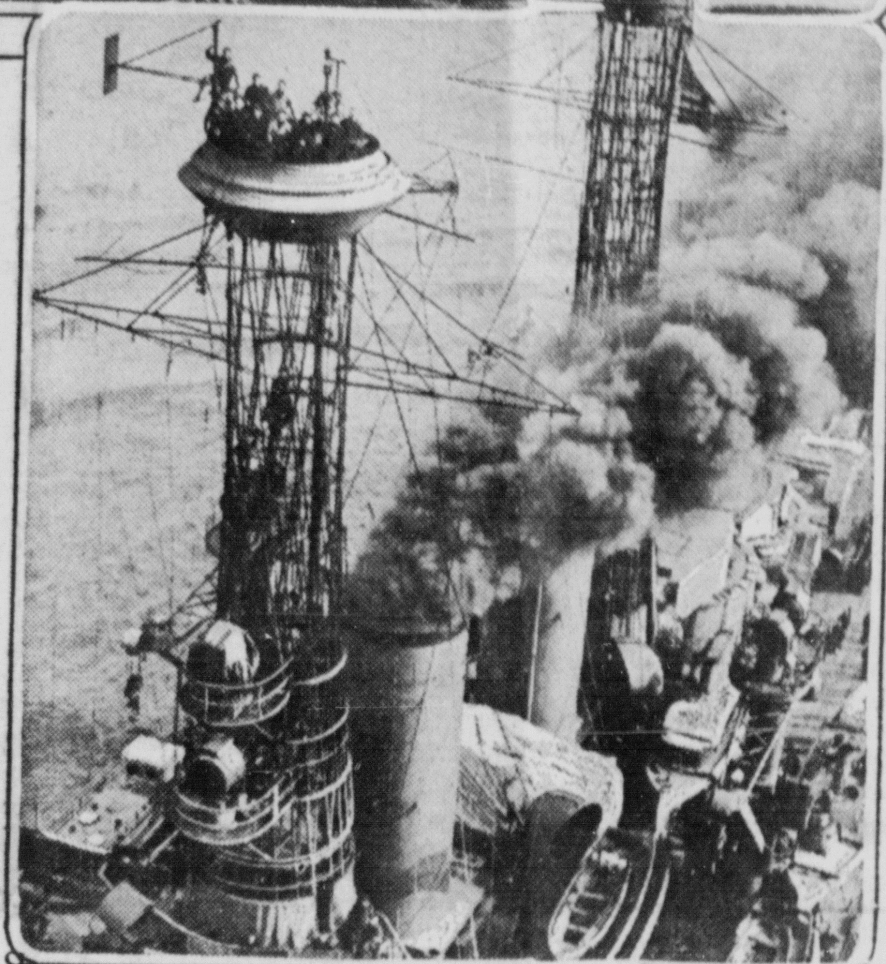

Eighty persons are in hospitals, and a number of others are at their homes receiving treatment.

NAVAL MANEUVERS JUST COMPLETED PROVED MOST STUPENDOUS YET ATTEMPTED

SALVO FROM ARKANSAS

Rear Admiral Austin M. Knight, U. S. N., chief umpire of the recent war game between the fleets commanded by Rear Admiral Henry T. Mayo and Rear Admiral James M. Helm, in an interview at the Naval War college, of which he is president, said the maneuvers had proved to be by far the most stupendous and instructive yet undertaken. "Its course was a good deal determined," he said, "by the weather, and, on account of the southwest breeze, with its customary accompaniment of mist, vessels could not be distinguished for more than two or three miles. This enabled the red fleet to make its way through the flotillas of torpedo boat destroyers and scout vessels sent out by the blue or defending fleet. As part of the training the civilian naval recruits received they have become somewhat efficient in handling one pounders. In the target practice with the one pounders the firing was at rate of four shots to the minute, the range starting at 600 yards and gradually decreasing to 300 yards. The one pounders were mounted in the bows of motorboats and the attack was made to imitate a landing party. The pointers of the gun crews soon found it was no easy matter to score a hit with the boat rocking all about, the target constantly shifting and the range growing less as their boat approached the supposed enemy. The volunteers from the

ARKANSAS MAKING SPEED

Maine, however, made a fair record. They scored thirty-five hits out of a possible sixty. In operating the heavier guns the range was approximately 1,800 yards when the command was given to fire, and the ship moved in a direction parallel to the target. The regular gunners also got their innings, but no report of the effectiveness of their fire has been reported by the navy department, which is holding this in strict secrecy. Above are shown salvos from the Arkansas dropping all around the target; also the same battleship, which was Vice Admiral DeWitt Coffman's flagship in the maneuvers, steaming at racing speed

Democrats Disappointed in Wilson's Declination.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., September 5.—While realizing that failure to secure President Wilson will not bring to Columbus as large a gathering of Ohio Democrats as was originally anticipated, State Democratic leaders looked forward to a substantial representation at the Convention Thursday.

Replies from delegates indicate that the attendance will be as large as at the June session.

United States Senator Robert L. Owen, of Oklahoma, will make the principal speech opening the campaign. Senator Pomerene will be chairman.

The only duty before the convention is that of adopting a platform. No advance draft of the platform prepared has been received as yet.

One of the features of the platform, it is said, will be a point specifically recommending a measure of relief to Ohio cities laboring under financial embarrassment.

The convention is expected to advise the return to the political subdivision of the liquor license and automobile taxes, as a medium of relieving the present stringency.

Joseph Breitenstein, of Canton, secretary to Chairman Finley, arrived in Columbus today to take over his fall campaign duties.

WEBB BILL DEAD

By Associated Press Dispatch. Washington, September 5.—Administration leaders said late today that Senators LaFollette, Republican, and Reed, Democrat, had forced them to abandon hope of passing the Webb bill, to permit American collective selling agencies in foreign countries.

Senator LaFollette gave notice that he would filibuster the bill to death.

COMMITTEE FOR PURCHASE

Foreign Relations Committee of Senate Is Favorable.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, September 5.—The treaty for purchase of the Danish West Indies for $25,000,000 was ordered favorably returned to the Senate by the Foreign Relations Committee by a unanimous vote of senators present.

It will be reported later today, and an effort made to have it ratified before adjournment of Congress.

SLIGHT INCREASE IN THE EPIDEMIC

Three More New Cases and Five More Deaths Than Previous Day.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

New York, September 5.—There was a slight increase in the epidemic of infantile paralysis during the 24 hours ending at 10 a. m. today.

There were 43 new cases, three more than yesterday, and 21 deaths, an increase of five.

Reports from Trenton, N. J., say there are 20 new cases in the state today, making a total of 2,778.

In Fremont, Ohio, public and parochial schools were not opened today, but will be opened September 18, as a result of the infantile paralysis situation.

In Boston, the schools' opening was postponed from next Monday to September 25.

GREECE TO ENTER

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, September 5.—Diplomatic circles here received a report today, considered reliable in every way, that Greece will enter the war with the Entente Allies within a short time.

BLACKLIST HARD HIT BY SENATE

Drastic Amendments to Revenue Bill a Slap Which Disturbs Allies' Diplomats.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, September 5.—Drastic amendments to the revenue bill, striking at the Allied blacklist and British interference with American mails, were adopted today by the Senate and created consternation among the diplomatic representatives of the Allies.

In all quarters it was declared that the enactment of the amendments into law would constitute nothing less than a non-intercourse act preliminary to a commercial warfare with possibilities of far-reaching consequences.

The retaliatory amendments become law with the President's signature.

The Allies technically have nothing to protest about, but there are assurances that representations will be made if the amendments stay in the bill.

Inasmuch as the Government has decided upon a course of legislation to meet the restraint upon commerce it is generally expected the amendments will be put through.

Administration leaders who have intimate connections with the Government's foreign policy made no attempt to stay their adoption.

RACE RIOTS AT CLEVELAND

One Man Fatally Hurt in Disturbances at Lake Side City.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Cleveland, O., September 5.—Joseph Schilaxi, 19, is dying and a score were less seriously injured here today in a race riot between whites and negroes in a railroad construction camp. Schilaxi was shot.

Police stopped the battle and made numerous arrests.

UP SHE GOES A LITTLE HIGHER

Baking Companies Boost Price of Bread.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Toledo, O., September 5.—Large baking companies here today raised the price of the five-cent loaf of bread to six cents, and the ten-cent loaf to twelve cents, saying the high cost of flour necessitated it.

AMERICA WILL YIELD THE POINT

To Grant Request of Mexican Commissioners.

PARLEYS NOW UNDER WAY

Demand That American Forces Be Withdrawn From Mexican Soil to Be Granted by the American Members of the Commission—Preliminary Conferences Held in New York—The Opening Session.

New York, Sept. 5.—Conferences between American and Mexican commissioners got under way here.

The Washington administration and the facto government of Mexico hope through the parleys to bring settlement of the past four years' friction.

The conferences here are merely preliminary to discussions of the points at issue. These later discussions will be held at New London, Conn.

The American commissioners are prepared to change their front. Preliminary knowledge by the Mexican representatives that General Funston has advised the withdrawal of American troops from Mexican soil has robbed Secretary of the Interior Lane and his associates on the commission of their trump card. It was admitted that the strongest position that the administration's men have left is insistence on adequate protection of the border, to balance the demands of the Mexican members.

Following the conference it became known that the American commissioners doubtless will accede to the main requests of the Mexican commission that the American troops be withdrawn from Mexican soil.

No reason was assigned for the sudden change of the meeting place from Portsmouth, N. H., to New London, except that the Connecticut city is more readily accessible from Washington.

WOMEN TAKING PLACES OF MEN

(Associated Press Cable.) London Sept. 5.—There are 11,600 women clerks and stenographers now employed in the British Government offices in Whitehall, a fact which gives some idea of the way the women have filled the gaps left by the men who have joined the army. And still the cry is heard for more women which leads to the belief that the demand has outstripped the supply.

Even the government departments are finding difficulty in securing the clerical assistance they require. At one time Whitehall officials could pick and choose their clerks, and the majority of those engaged were of an adaptable age—from 20 to 30—but an intelligent girl of 17 without experience can now find a place.

and middle-aged women need no longer feel that they are not wanted. To meet extensions of the activities of such busy places as the war office and the ministry of munitions, it is estimated that some 200 women clerks can be absorbed every week into the official machinery.

The pay is not high, though it is more than what was regarded as a satisfactory starting salary for young girls before the war. It is, of course, far below the salary paid for similar work in the United States.

For ordinary routine work or typewriting the pay is one pound ($5) a week, with six pence (12 cents) an hour for over time. For ordinary clerical work the pay is 25 shillings ($6.25) a week, with an over time rate of seven pence. Competent stenographers start at 26 shillings a week, much may be raised to thirty after a period of satisfactory service, and the over time rate is nine pence an hour. The normal hours of work vary from 42 to 48 a week in different departments.

PAPER "CLOTH" IS USED BY GERMANS

(Associated Press Cable.) Copenhagen, Denmark, Sept. 5.—A new German textile in which paper is spun with about 20 per cent of cotton is being exhibited here.

Unspun cotton in the form of down is glued to one side of endless rolls of paper and the paper is then shorn into narrow bands, which are spun with the cotton side outwards.

Danish experts were shown paper underclothing, jerseys, sheets, bandages and horse-blankets, but the cost of production of the article is said to be too high to allow of its competing with cotton or woolen cloth under normal conditions.

"DEAD LETTERS" ON THE DECREASE

By Associated Press Dispatch. Washington, Sept. 5.—The dead letter office of the postoffice department received the greatest number of undeliverable letters and packages in 1911 when they numbered 12,614,616. Since that time there has been a decrease each year and in 1915 the number was 10,781,927. Each year there is a sale of articles found in letters for which the department is unable to find owners. The proceeds of this sale last year amounted to $38,514.

FARM NOTES

Insects As Carriers

That the organisms of fire blight of the apple and pear can live for more than a week in honey dew of aphids and that the organisms can live for at least five days on peach, plum and cherry nectar, during which time they may possibly be carried to hosts susceptible to blight infection, are conclusions reached by experts studying this problem at the Ohio Experiment Station and reported in its September Monthly Bulletin. These men have also found that the blight germs will live for about three days in honey.

Flies, ants and various kinds of bees visit honey dew and flowers of different fruit trees. Thus it is possible for the blight to be carried to trees susceptible to infection.

Catch Tussock Moths

Banding fruit and shade trees with some sticky substance like tanglefoot is of help in controlling the tussock moth, which is now about a full-grown caterpillar and will soon crawl down the trees to change to the pupal stage. Full-grown caterpillars are also likely to travel to other trees for no apparent reason except restlessness.

Spraying the trees with 3 to 5 pounds of arsenate of lead in 50 gallons of water is also recommended by entomologists at the Ohio Experiment Station. The latter method, however, can be used for large trees only when rather expensive spraying outfits are accessible. Paris green may be substituted for arsenate of lead, but may burn tender foliage.

This caterpillar is especially abundant on shade trees, but also attacks the common fruit trees. The eggs, laid about the middle of September, do not hatch till spring. Banding the trees now prevents invasion by caterpillars coming from nearby trees.

For Exhibiting Potatoes.

Exhibits at county and state fairs have been suggested as an important means for the improvement of varieties of potatoes. Although some counties list more than a hundred varieties, only seven are of sufficient importance to warrant expensive planting, according to S. N. Green, of the Ohio Experiment Station. These are: Beauty of Hebron, Carmen No. 3, Early Ohio, Early Rose, Green Mountain, Irish Cobbler and Rural New Yorker No. 2.

In the Station's Monthly Bulletin for August and September he gives suggestions regarding exhibits and identifications of varieties. The points in potato judging are also included.

Second Regiment Leaves.

Columbus, Sept. 5.—The Second Infantry, under Colonel J. Guy Deming of Ada, left today for the Mexican border.

Child Scalded.

Newark, O., Sept. 5.—Charles Bagent, four-year-old son of O. A. J. Bagent, may die from scalds received when he fell into a tub of hot water.

Tragedy Sequel to Crap Game.

Dayton, O., Sept. 5.—Grant Foster shot and instantly killed Robert Buckner, when the two met on the street and when Buckner refused to give Foster 50 cents the latter had won from him in a crap game. The principals are negroes. Foster was arrested.

Injured In Collision.

Newark, O., Sept. 5.—C. H. Morgan is in a serious condition and Martin Bowers was rendered unconscious when Morgan's motorcycle collided with Bowers' bicycle at the fair grounds. Morgan is believed to be internally injured. Bowers is not seriously hurt.

Minister Fatally Injured.

Columbus, Sept. 5.—Much concern is felt over the condition of Rev. Dr. Isaac F. King, who fell on the steps of the First Methodist Episcopal church Sunday and sustained a broken rib. Dr. King is eighty-two years old, and because of his advanced age the accident, it is thought, may result fatally.

Died In Ambulance.

Columbus, Sept. 5.—Six-year-old Jeannette Mooney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Mooney of Milan, O., died in an ambulance en route to Protestant hospital, where she was being taken after the automobile driven by her aunt, Miss Harriet Mooney, had bumped into a Pennsylvania freight train at a crossing here.

Old School Head Enjoined.

Lancaster, O., Sept. 5.—Judge Reeves in the common pleas court decided against Professor S. H. Layton, who has been school superintendent here for several years, and enjoined him from interfering with the newly elected superintendent, Professor J. R. Clements of Columbus. It is understood that this will not settle the matter, as Professor Layton will contest the decision.

PIECES OF MAIL HANDLED IN YEAR

By Associated Press Dispatch. Washington Sept. 5.—The growth of the postoffice department of the United States is best illustrated by estimates made by department officials of the number of pieces of mail of all kinds handled. The first estimate recorded is 124,173,480 pieces in 1847, no account having been kept of earlier years from the beginning of the service in 1789. The latest estimate was that of '913 when 18,567,445,160 pieces were handled.

FINE ART TREASURE

(Associated Press Cable.)

Budapest, Hungary, Sept. 5.—The Museum of Fine Arts has acquired what is declared to be a treasure in an almost unknown bronze statue of Leonardo da Vinci, executed by himself. The Hungarian sculptor Stephen Ferency bought the bronze in Italy early in the 19th century without knowing that Da Vinci was its creator. It was not until after Ferency's death that the authorship was established.

STEVENSON WRITES "THE ANCIENT SIN"

Washington friends of Mr. Burton E. Stevenson, Chillicothe Librarian, and who read his famous novel "Little Comrade" issued in 1914, will be interested in the following excerpt from the Chillicothe News: "The big feature serial of McClure's Magazine for the coming winter will be from the pen of Burton E. Stevenson, city librarian and well-known novelist. Mr. Stevenson has called the story 'The Ancient Sin' but it is possible that this title may be changed before the story begins. The McClure picture corporation is also negotiating with Mr. Stevenson for the moving picture rights for the story."

COME TO FAYETTE

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. P. Jamison and Mr. and Mrs. Omar Shwartz have leased a farm between 500 and 600 acres six miles southwest of Washington C. H., Ohio and will remove to that place March 1, 1917. While their may friends regret to have them leave Ross county, are pleased to learn they will locate in so good a county as Fayette, the farm they have leased, being one of that famous county's best.—Frankfort Sun.

Dr. Frederick Blankner, the Specialist, Impresses Large Audiences With His Lecture on Complicated Chronic Diseases and Demonstrations of Painless Extraction of Teeth Last Saturday.

On last Saturday afternoon and evening large audiences listened with marked attention at the Court House when Dr. Frederick Blankner explained why so many people were sick and why health could be restored. It made it very plain why elimination and digestion were the prime factors of health and why defective digestion and elimination developed so much distress in the human system.

The Doctor is now at Hotel Arlington, Room No. 32, and will remain until Saturday, September 8th. The doctor came here with the very best of endorsements and during the past thirty years of experience has developed an efficiency in the successful treatment of complicated chronic diseases that very few physicians ever attain. He has garnered his wealth of knowledge by coming in direct contact with the sick and afflicted all over the United States and is a Post Graduate in the hard knocks of the school of experience and his services are valuable to all whom he accepts for treatment. Those who are afflicted in any way whatever along the line of chronic ailments of the stomach, liver, bowels, bladder, kidneys, lungs, nerves, goiter, eczema, running sores, blood poisoning etc. will indeed be acting wisely by making a little journey to room No. 32, Arlington and meet the doctor face to face in an honest, conscientious straight from the shoulder heart to heart talk and you will never know what he can or can't do for you unless you make the journey and then he may prove to be just the doctor that you so long have been wishing to meet. He has successfully treated thousands and why not you. Remember that all cases that come to the doctor do so in a spirit of discouragement because they have tried so many dietors and remedies without avail. This is not Dr. Blankner's fault and you can rest assured that until you find a treatment that is applicable to your condition that you will not find rest this side of eternity.

That is just what the doctor does, meets the cause of your ailments and assists nature in a sensible and intelligent manner. To the wise no more need be said.

All Say Dr. Blankner Is a Wonder In The Painless Extraction of Teeth

Ask anyone that witnessed the Doctor's work last Saturday and they will tell you that he evidenced the fact that he is the greatest expert that has ever visited Washington C. H. Just think of the many ulcerated teeth that he operated on, as well as many roots all with a perfect unanimity and exact precision and skill. All smiled and said God Bless the Doctor. On Sunday Mr. Wilbur Brown, with his wife and two children who lives on Western Ave., called at room No. 32. His daughter who was the first to sit down in the easy going rocking chair and who always fainted when going to a dentist and a tooth that many of the local dentists refused to extract. Now remember this is no reflection on the dentists, but the tooth was a very hard one. In fact the roots were deeply imbedded and badly ulcerated and was a very difficult piece of work which required an expert. What happened? In a few moments the tooth was taken out and she smiled and said God Bless the Doctor. The other daughter had two badly ulcerated teeth. Mrs. Brown said that last winter she had to sit up with her for a month and never did she see a person that suffered so much. There is no greater pain than an ulcerated tooth will produce. Well, in a few moments the teeth were taken out when she said: "My, how I wish you would stay in the city." She said mama has some she wants out. Well mama sat down and in a few moments six were taken out, all she had. When they left the office they were smiling and said: "Doctor, everyone in our neighborhood knows what a time we have had and rest assured there will be many that will come to you. Mrs. Mary Rankin, 608 E. Market street, was indeed glad that Dr. Blankner came to town. She had out her diseased teeth and was more than pleased.

Diseased teeth are dangerous in many ways. Now you have an opportunity that you can't duplicate. Will you improve it until Saturday, September 8th, Office hours, 9 a. m. to 8 p. m. Doctor's wife in attendance.

FAVORITE COPS

(By American Press)

Cedar Point, O., Sept. 5.—With a left on the jaw, followed quickly by a right to the pit of the stomach, Champion Johnny Kilbane put George Chaney of Baltimore down to stay after 2 minutes and 42 seconds of the third round had elapsed. Referee Hinkle, in the ring, immediately after he had counted Chaney out, said that the blow that did the damage traveled less than six inches.

The result was never in doubt after the first minute of the first round. Kilbane started right out in front and steadily increased his lead in the battle until the eventual termination of the third round. He hit Chaney whenever and wherever he cared and really made the Baltimore challenger look ridiculous with his left hand constantly reaching Chaney's face.

The Big Problem

The Congress of the United States—the House by such an overwhelming majority that party lines were entirely obliterated and the Senate by a margin which clearly marked out party divisions—has enacted the Adamson eight-hour day law applying to inter-state common carriers.

The threatened strike of railroad employees has been averted, the strike order has been rescinded and the menace has passed.

Anyone, however, who permits the action of Congress to produce a feeling of security, to inspire the belief that any permanent remedy has been provided is certain to realize that he is mistaken and that the relief furnished by the enactment of the Adamson law is only temporary.

Perhaps the enormity of the threatened calamity warranted Congress in taking the action which it did but the great majority of the people of the United States do not accept kindly the spectacle of the Congress of the nation being bludgeoned into the enactment of any law.

If Congress does not follow up the work of last Friday and Saturday with legislation which will make a recurrence of the conditions, that so disturbed the nation, impossible in the future, it will lack sadly in discharging its duty.

Compulsory arbitration, at least pertaining to the great common carriers of the land, and plans that will insure, no matter what the differences between operators and employees may be, the operation of the great commerce carrying railroads, should be enacted into law at once.

The nation should not wait until another crisis arises.

No doubt Congress was actuated by the desire to avert the calamity of a nation-wide strike and no doubt each side of the controversy, which developed the crisis, has much of merit in its contentions, perhaps the eight-hour law is entirely proper and again it may be an injustice to the railroad companies and to the shippers of the country, but those are not the disturbing features.

If the railroad brotherhoods can force Congress to, within a fixed time limit, do exactly as they dictate, why can't other organizations do the same thing?

If twenty per cent of the railroad employees can do that what becomes, if conditions are allowed to remain so that is possible, of the power and the majesty of the government of all the people?

It is inconceivable that the national administration proposes to allow such conditions to exist.

The temporary relief afforded by the Adamson law must be followed by such legislation as will protect the shippers of the country from an unjust increase in rates and by such legislation as will forever make it impossible for any individual or individuals to take the government by the throat and compel it to do as they dictate.

Roumania's Part

The tremendous effect of Roumania's entrance into the European conflict is becoming more apparent with each day's happenings.

There are a number of occurrences since Roumania's entrance, each of which critics will class as the most vital. Every one of a half dozen changes made necessary by Roumania's act seem vital in their effect.

One of the changes brought about is the attitude of Greece. When Roumania declared war on the side of the Entente powers, Bulgaria was forced, by military necessity, to further violate the neutrality of Greece and to commit such flagrant violations that the Greek populace became aroused and demanded, if not an actual declaration of war against Bulgaria and Turkey, such neutrality as favored markedly the Entente powers. The Greek monarch was forced to comply with demands of the populace and Greece now in every way save by actual declaration of war, is enlisted with the Entente powers.

Roumania's entrance into the war has opened the door in the rear of the Central powers and permitted their enemies to come in behind them. With Roumania neutral the situation was not unlike that of a man who forced into hallway is able to keep his pursuers in front of him and beat off their attacks. When the door behind him is thrown open, however, he is compelled to flee or suffer defeat.

That Roumania, with dreams of control in the Balkans, will be of tremendous assistance to the Entente powers, is beyond dispute. The forcing back of Turkey and Austria and the ultimate attack upon and seizure of Constantinople and the Dardanelles seems nearer to realization than ever before.

With Roumania's entrance into the war only seven nations of all continental Europe are without the vortex of war—really only six because Greece, in every way save formally, is involved in the conflict.

The civilization of the old world has been terribly wounded and the red blood which flows from those wounds has overrun almost the entire continent of Europe.

Poetry For Today

THE MAN WHO WINS.

The man who wins is an average man;
Not built on any particular plan,
Not blest with any peculiar luck—
Just steady and earnest and full of pluck
When asked a question he does not "guess"—
He knows, and answers "No" or "Yes;"
When set a task that the rest can't do
He buckles down till he puts it through.
Three things he's learned; that the man who tries
Finds favor in his employer's eyes;
That it pays to know more than one thing well;
That it doesn't pay all he knows to tell.
So he works and waits, till one fine day
There's a better job with bigger pay
And the men who shirked whenever they could
Are bossed by the man whose work made good.
For the man who wins is the man who works,
Who neither labor nor trouble shirks
Who uses his hands, his head, his eyes;
The man who wins is the man who tries.

THE MAN WHO FAILS.

The man who fails is the sort of a chap
Who always is looking around for a snap
Who neglects his work to regard the clock;
Who never misses a chance to knock
He is grouchy and slow when work begins;
When it's time to quit he jokes and grins.
He's always as busy as busy can be
When he thinks the boss is around to see.
He believes that a "pull" is the only way
By which he can ever draw bigger pay;
And he sulks and growls when he sees his plan
Upset by the "push of another man."
He's on the job when he draws his pay,
That done, he soldiers his time away
While the men who tackle their jobs with vim
Keep pushing and climbing ahead of him.
For the man who fails has himself to blame
If he wastes his chance and misses his aim;
He'd win if he'd use his hands and wits—
The man who fails is the man who quits.

BAD SMASH

(By American Press)

Cincinnati, Sept. 5.—Johnny Aitken in a Peugeot assumed a lead over Dario Resta in a Peugeot at the one hundred and sixty-eighth mile and won the first 300 mile sweepstakes at the new Sharonville track. Wilbur D'Alene in a Dusenbury was second, while Frank Galvin, far behind, drew down third money with a Sunbeam. One accident marred the day's sport. Gilbert Anderson, in a Stutz, while in the stretch on the one hundred and sixty-eighth mile, skidded and dived into the fence. His car turned turtle and he was dangerously injured. His mechanic, Bert Shields, suffered a fracture of the thigh and internal injuries, and his recovery is doubtful.

Aitken's time for the race was 3 hours, 5 minutes and 27 seconds, an average of 97.06 miles per hour.

YOUNG FIRE BUG

Columbus, Sept. 5.—Confessions of a juvenile pyromaniac followed some sensational rescues affected at the burning of a rooming house at Belle and Broad streets. The boy who confessed to setting the building aflame is Emil Haggl, four and a half years old, son of Charles Haggl. It was Mr. Haggl who rescued two women from the flames by going up the side of the building, using only his toes and fingers and without the aid of ropes or ladders.

BANDITS RESPONSIBLE

(By American Press)

Laredo, Tex., Sept. 5.—Twenty-five Mexican soldiers and eleven passengers were killed when a Constitutionalist train was wrecked by bandits claiming allegiance to Carrero Torres, according to advices reaching the border. The bandits butchered the train guards and carried away everything moveable, these advices said. The wreck occurred between San Luis and Tampico, below Cardenas.

LEPER COLONY FOR HOLLAND

Plans on Foot to Found District in the Veluwe Region.
Amsterdam.—Holland is to have a leper colony. The country is exposed to the leprosy danger owing to the great traffic with its East and West Indian colonies, and there are estimated to be roughly between thirty and forty sufferers from the disease already within its borders.
Plans are on foot to found such a colony in the Veluwe region, between Epe and Heerde.

BORROWED MONEY MAY PAY "WHITE WINGS" FOR WORK

No Provision Made for the Cleaning of Up-town Streets and Council Is to Endeavor to Provide Means at Adjourned Session Thursday Night.

No business was transacted at the Monday night session of the City solons because it was Labor Day, and after reading the minutes and discussing the problem of cleaning the up town streets, council adjourned until Thursday night of this week, when one of the matters considered will be the raising of funds to pay the "white wings" on the up town streets.

The "white wings" were removed from the street cleaning work last Friday because no funds remained with which to pay for the work, and at the Monday night session it was announced that no provision had been made in the semi-annual appropriation to take care of the work. Solicitor Gregg stated that the only way he knew of was to issue bonds to pay for the work. Council agreed to think the matter over until the next session.

Meanwhile no cleaning of up town streets is taking place and the filth is rapidly accumulating and the streets are becoming on a par with the paved residence streets of the city, many of which have not been cleaned since they were completed last year.

FOUR AFFIDAVITS IN MAYOR'S COURT

As the result of a series of scraps which started on the ball grounds, Sunday afternoon, and wound up on the Columbus pike one mile east of this city, four affidavits were filed before Mayor Oster Sunday evening. Chas. Runnels filed an affidavit against Jesse Bonecutter; Jesse Bonecutter filed an affidavit against Dick Runnels; Jesse Bonecutter filed an affidavit against Arthur Pickens and Fred Van Gundy filed an affidavit against Press Grandle.

Pickens waived examination and was held to the grand jury under $100 bond. The other three men were to face Mayor Oster Tuesday.

BOY CONFESSES TO GRAVE CHARGE

William Collins, aged 16, of Xenia, was picked up in this city Monday after endeavoring to pass a bad check on John Worrel, and later admitted the crime.

The young man apparently did not realize the gravity of the crime, and at first denied guilt. However he later confessed to Sheriff Jones that the check was worthless. It was for the sum of $6.68, made payable to W. H. Wilkins and bore the name of "Mrs. O. D. Bennett". It was on the Farmers & Traders Bank of Jamestown.

The boy's mother was communicated with and was overjoyed to learn that her son, who had run away from home, was safe, but when she learned of the crime she became hysterical.

LYCEUM NUMBERS PROVING WINNERS

Two of the attractions which the Washington Lyceum Course committee has booked for the excellent course this winter, have made eminently good in nearby cities during the past few weeks.

One of the attractions—Miss Gay Zalona McLaren, a gifted impersonator and entertainer, appeared at the Greenfield Chautauqua, and was pronounced equal to any number of the entire chautauqua.

The second was Dr. William A. Colledge, native of Edinburgh, Scotland, and among America's foremost men of letters, who appeared at the Circleville chautauqua and made a profound impression upon all who heard him. The Circleville Herald, speaking of Dr. Colledge, says: "He is a fine talker with marvelous flow of language and is one of the best platform orators on the stage today."

AUTOS MUST SHOW TWO WHITE LIGHTS

Driving automobiles by the use of a spot light, without displaying the usual headlights, will not be tolerated in this city, it was announced Tuesday morning.

Autos must show two white lights in front, and if the spot light is used without proper headlights, the driver violates a state law and is liable to fine.

Mayor Oster's attention also was called to speeding automobiles.

AUTO IS WRECKED IN MAKING TURN

A Ford automobile, driven by Dr. V. P. Smith, was badly wrecked Monday night, while making the turn from Washington avenue into Columbus avenue while going at a good rate of speed.

The machine crashed into the upon the sidewalk, and struck the retaining wall in front of Hon. Frank C. Parrett's residence, smashing the machine very badly.

MINISTERS MEET AND ORGANIZE FOR COMING CAMPAIGN

Noted Missionary Worker Addresses Ministers and Organization Is Made for Layman's Missionary Convention to Be Held Here in October.

The monthly session of the Fayette County Ministerial Association was held at the Y. M. C. A. Monday.

The return missionary from Africa now National Secretary of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, Mr. Elbert L. McCreary gave an interesting description of the missionaries work. He spoke of the language, the habits, the customs, the social life and the moral life of these undeveloped people. They have no commercial life, no industrial life, not a factory nor a printing press any where.

After his address Mr. Patton invited us out to dinner.

When all were sufficiently refreshed we effected an organization preparatory to the coming Laymen's Missionary Convention to be held here in October.

The officers are chairman, A. J. Walker; vice-chairman, Rev. J. V. Stone; secretary, H. L. Spray; treasurer, G. S. Threlkeld, Jeffersonville.

The chairman of the several committees were chosen as follows: Publicity committee and committee on delegates, M. E. Hitchcock; chairman finance committee, D. S. Craig, chairman; committee on the pulpit exchange, Walter Patton committee on the arrangements, J. H. Hicks, chairman; committee on statistics, Prof. Wm. McClain, chairman.

The Ministerial Association began arrangements for the union evangelistic services.

An evangelistic commission was formed with Walter Patton chairman, and one member from each church to be appointed by the pastor.

Rev. R. G. Reynolds, the pastor of McNair Memorial Presbyterian church was presented and duly installed a member of the organization.

Miss Martha McCoy of Bloomingburg gave a musicale with her pupils in piano which was both appreciated and enjoyed by the parents and a limited number of friends Saturday afternoon.

Miss McCoy is herself a decidedly brilliant pianist and the excellent work of the pupils was most creditable to her training. Pupils taking part in the program were Misses Aileen Rogers, Doris McClellan, Ruth Pugsley, Anna Grace McCoy.

Miss Helen McCoy added entertaining readings to the program and Miss Martha McCoy responded to requests for piano numbers.

Mrs. J. W. McCoy and Mrs. Chas. McCoy assisted in serving light refreshments at the close of the program.

Mrs. Loren Sever gave a beautiful birthday party Monday afternoon in honor of the sixth birthday of her little daughter Marjorie. She was assisted by Mrs. J. D. Wagley.

A pink and white color scheme was effectively carried out in the decorations, clusters of pink and white cosmos, predominating.

A delicious luncheon was served and the children's delight centered in the birthday cake with blazing pink and white candles.

A jolly party composed of Mr. and Mrs. Caryle Graves, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Graves and daughter Doris, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Moots, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Graves and daughter Donna, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Miller, Misses Dorothy Miller, Minnie and Lucy Graves, Donald Moots, Harvey and Luther Graves enjoyed a delightful day at Monroe Falls Sunday.

A sumptuous spread at noon was the great event of the day.

Mrs. Harry D. Taylor was given a surprise party in honor of her birthday.

day, Monday evening that was one of the largest and most successful surprises among the many which have been tendered in the community.

Over a hundred neighbors and friends from town and all parts of the county assembled at the Taylor home east of town with baskets laden with picnic delicacies. Long tables were set on the large lawn and lighted by machine lamps and lanterns. The elegant picnic spread was a record breaker and later in the evening ice cream and lemonade served.

The occasion was one of great pleasure to both honor guest and guests.

Coats

This season's styles in Coats are meeting with instant approval. Never before have the designers given us styles that are adapted to each and every figure.

The Coats

are quite full and as a rule hang from the shoulders, although on some we find the line broken by the large loose belt.

Many new collars are given this season that are especially smart, with style characteristics as unusual as they are becoming.

There are many new materials added to the already favored line of Cloakings, among which Bolivia Velour, Eclat Priscilla Velour, Wool Velour and a number of new fancy cloths are especially popular.

The colors are practically the same as found in the Suits. Your special attention is directed to our

$10 and $25 COATS

Others from $5.00 to $85.00.

is winning approval. We have made special effort to meet the growing demand for early Fall Hats moderately priced and that will take care of the between seasons at small outlay. You will appreciate these Hats at

$2.50 and $4.50

BLOUSES AND WAISTS

Owing to the special demand for Waists we are placing on display every day many new and wonderful styles. Special attention is called to our much favored

Georgette Blouses
$5.00 to $8.50.

Suits

Fashion has decreed Suits to be altogether distinctive in style from those of the previous season.

Coats will be quite a little longer fitted slightly at the waist line, with very full skirts.

Skirts will be worn a little longer and will hang in soft folds from the waist line. The materials especially favored are the beautiful new Wool Velours, Broadcloths, Gabardines, Poplins and many new fancy Woisted fabrics. The colors of the new fall shades will be Plum, Burgundy, Serpent, Field Mouse, Catawba and Gazelle.

Special attention is called to our two special lines of Suits at

$15.00 and $25.00

Others range $12.50 to $65.00.

ALLIES PUSH BACK GERMANS

Combles, In Somme Sector,
Rendered Untenable.

IMPORTANT POINTS SEIZED

Five Thousand Prisoners and Several Villages Taken in the Allies' Latest Operations—Roumanians Advancing Along the Transylvania Border. Heavy Fighting On the Russian Front—Engagements Elsewhere.

London, Sept. 5.—Following up their strong offensive against the Germans north and south of the Somme river in France, the Anglo-French forces again have driven their lines forward and captured important German positions.

South of the Somme the village of Soyecourt and part of the village of Vermandovillers have been captured, while seemingly more important still the French have made fresh progress east of the village of Forest, which lies one and one-half miles southeast of the railroad town of Combles—a gain which, taken with the capture of Guillemont on Sunday, seemingly outflanks Combles and apparently renders it untenable. More than 5,000 Germans have been made prisoners north and south of the Somme during the last two days.

On the British right wing progress is reported north of Falimont farm, while a German counter attack north west of Moquet farm was repulsed. In the Verdun sector Paris records a fresh gain near Fleury.

Berlin, in admitting the claims of British and French successes in the fighting of Sunday in the Somme region, says the battling over the eighteen mile front from Beaumont to the Soome was of the greatest ferocity. The Germans held their ground at Thieval, north of Pozieres and near Ginchay, but Guillemont village and wood were lost, as likewise was Ginchay, but a counter attack of the Germans won back a portion of the latter town, the Germans say.

Again there is heavy fighting on the front in Russia west and southwest of Lutsk and north of Zborow and near Brezany, in Galicia, with the Russians generally the aggressors. Petrograd controverts the assertion of Berlin that the Russians obtained only local successes near Brezany by the declaration that the Russians won a victory over the Teutons here and took 2,641 prisoners.

In the Carpathian region, according to Petrograd, the Russians have captured an entire series of heights and are advancing to the Hungarian frontier.

All along the Transylvania front the Roumanians continue to press their advantage against the Austro-Hungarians. Here they have captured several additional towns and now are said to be bombarding the town of Hermannstadt, which is second in importance only to Kronstadt. The German and Bulgarian forces are attacking along the entire front between Dobruja and Bulgaria. Near Koenar, Berlin reports, the Roumanians were driven back with the loss of 700 men taken prisoners.

In Albania, the Italians east of Avlona have taken the villages of Kutai and Brizar and Monte Gradist.

The Germans have surrendered to the British Dar-Es-Salaam, Germany's chief seaport in East Africa.

Considerable fighting is in progress in the Austro-Italian theater, but without any important changes in terrain having occurred.

DECISION GIVEN TO CHAMPION

Referee's Ruling Displeases
Followers of White.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Sept. 5.—Freddie Welsh retained his title of champion lightweight pugilist of the world after going the full scheduled twenty rounds with Challenger Charlie White of Chicago. Referee Billy Roche of New York awarded Welsh the decision on points.

As the gong sounded at the close of the twentieth round Roche stood for several moments as if undecided. He then reached out both hands toward the boxers, and many of the spectators believed he was about to award

a draw. Suddenly Welsh rushed over to Roche and placed his glove in the referee's hand, while the official appeared to be reaching for White. The next instant jubilant friends of the champion swarmed into the ring.

When Referee Roche announced his decision the challenger's adherents appeared for the moment spellbound. Then began a fusillade of cushions from all directions at the referee. He was rushed through the crowd by friends to a waiting automobile.

From a spectacular standpoint the battle was considered one of the poorest that has ever been fought for the highest ring honors in the lightweight division. For fully two-thirds of the time the fighters were locked in a succession of clinches, pushing each other back and forth about the ring. For this many spectators thought Welsh was largely to blame.

Throughout the contest scarcely a blow was struck by either man that did any damage. Welsh did most of the leading.

KEPT BUSY

(By American Press)

Stockholm, Sweden, Sept. 5.—The fear expressed in government circles here that belligerent naval operations in the Baltic this summer would place a heavy burden upon the neutrality of Sweden seems to have been amply justified by the events of the past few weeks. The Swedish navy, small but efficient, has worked night and day to keep the territorial waters free of infringement, but despite this vigilance submarines and stealthy destroyers of the warring powers have slipped into the three mile limit and stolen away with a prize.

Germany has been the chief offender of late, but the Russians were guilty of poaching earlier in the summer and still hold two German steamers taken within the three mile limit despite the protests of the Swedish government.

The Germans seem to have adopted the practice of capturing a ship, taking off such supplies as they need and then releasing the vessel with a polite apology.

GREECE YIELDING

(By American Press)

Athens, Greece, Sept. 5.—The Greek government has accepted the demands of the entente powers in their entirety and agents of the French and British governments are taking over the control of postal and telegraphic communication.

Baron Von Schenk, chief director of the German propaganda in Greece, has been arrested and taken on board a cruiser of the entente allies. Sixteen additional warships of the entente powers have arrived at Piraeus.

Diplomats of the entente allies had demanded that Baron Von Schenk and sixty co-workers in behalf of the central powers, be expelled from Greece. It was reported that he had barricaded himself in his house in Athens and surrounded it with a score of armed guards and his friends to protect him.

San Antonio, Tex., Sept. 5.—The outbreak of para-typhoid in the camp of the New York guardsmen at Mission, Tex., has presented the new hospital here an opportunity for a test trip. It left today for the Brownsville district and will bring from the base hospital for that district at McAllen all movable cases. Army officers do not regard the para-typhoid outbreak as serious. Thirty-six cases have been reported. Health reports from the Brownsville district on Sept. 2 showed the sick rate to be 2.8 per cent to the thousand. The highest rate, 5.4 per cent, was in the Fourteenth New York infantry, the heaviest sufferer from para-typhoid.

LAWYER IS SHOT ON LONELY ROAD

New York Police Investigating
the Mystery.

New York, Sept. 5.—Police combed the Van Cortlandt park district for two men who, it is claimed, stepped out of the brush by the side of a lonely road and shot and killed Dwight Dilworth, a lawyer, as he sat in his automobile. The only story of the murder the police have is from the lips of Miss Mary McNiff, a stenographer, who was the companion of the murdered man. She was hysterical and incoherent when held by the police for examination.

First knowledge of the crime came to the police when Miss McNiff, breathless and excited, ran up to two officers some distance away and told them Dilworth had been held up and shot by two highwaymen. The officers accompanied Miss McNiff to the scene of the murder and found the Dilworth car with its wheels cramped across the road and its headlights streaming over the field. Over the driving wheel hung the limp body of the lawyer. On the hands of the lawyer were valuable rings and in his pocket was a wallet containing a considerable amount.

MACK QUILTS

(By American Press)

Cincinnati, Sept. 5.—R. A. Mack, who has withdrawn as "Law Enforcement" party candidate for governor, denied all knowledge of alleged fraud and irregularities in the nomination petitions filed in his behalf. He had nothing to do with that part of the work, he says. The petitions with the alleged irregularities have been taken up by the board of elections. The Republican campaign committee charges that 65 of the 101 petition circulators can not be found.

SAMUEL TALKS

(By American Press)

Lewiston, Me., Sept. 5.—In an address here Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, defended the attitude of the brotherhoods and, while he praised President Wilson for his efforts to settle the controversy, he unqualifiedly denounced any attempt at legislation to compel arbitration. "The railroad brotherhoods have not refused to accept arbitration," he said. "They have declared that the eight hour workday involves a principle of human welfare that can not be disputed, and therefore can not be arbitrated. They are willing to submit every other issue, all of which are arbitrable, to a mutual satisfactory tribunal. In this position they are in accord with every organization or organism that has ever declared for the principle of arbitration."

MANY PERSONS INJURED

Accident a Prelude to the Boxing Match at Colorado Springs—Nearly 100 Victims Hurled to the Hospitals, Several Having Received Serious Injuries—Authorities Begin Probe to Place the Blame.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Sept. 5.—Two hundred spectators were hurled to the ground when a portion of the bleacher seats at the Welsh-White lightweight championship fight collapsed. At least 100 persons were injured, a number seriously.

At the hospitals it was said that all of the sixty persons taken there after the accident would recover. Many were released after having their injuries dressed.

The crash came before the larger part of the crowd had arrived. Policemen, aided by the fire department, quickly placed the injured in automobiles and comparatively little confusion resulted and the boxing program was not delayed.

Announcement was made from the ringside that the stands had been carefully inspected before the crowd was admitted, but D. G. Johnson, commissioner of public safety, said that so far as he knew no inspection had been made by the city engineer's office, and he added that a thorough investigation would be made in an effort to fix the responsibility.

J. Elmer Johnson and Conway L. Hearne of Colorado Springs were among those seriously hurt. Others injured and taken to hospitals were: Dr. C. A. Dunbore of Philadelphia, A. E. McCoy, St. Augustine, Fla.; A. W. Jamison, Prosper, Tex.; B. R. Guilds, Detroit; A. C. Leggett and Joseph Zeelan, Raton, N. M.

Shakeup of Generals as Hindenburg Takes Up Duties on Imperial Staff

FIELD MARSHAL VON HINDENBURG

GENERAL VON LUDENDORFF

The Hague correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph reports that Kaiser Wilhelm dismissed General von Falkenhayn, chief of the German general staff and put Field Marshal von Hindenburg in his place because Falkenhayn was opposed to sending troops to the eastern front to meet the Roumanian invasion. Von Hindenburg urged that re-enforcements be sent to Austria and won the support of the kaiser with the result that German troops have now been rushed to the defense of Transylvania. The change in the general staff means the dismissal of thirty German generals on both fronts, the most radical change in the German army since the war began.

GLORIA'S ROMANCE

By Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Hughes

Novelized from the Motion Picture Play of the same name by George Kleine.

Copyright, 1916, by Adelaide M. Hughes

SYNOPSIS.

Pierpont Stafford, banker and railroad magnate, with his sixteen-year-old daughter, Gloria, is wintering at Palm Beach. Gloria is a vivacious but willful young lady who chafes under the restraining hand of a governess from whom she repeatedly escapes. Her childish capers cause young Doctor Royce to fall in love with her. She steals from her room at night and in an auto plunges into the surf where she leaves the car. Becoming lost in the everglades she falls into the hands of the Seminole Indians. She is rescued and returned to her father who had offered a reward for her return. Gloria falls in love with her rescuer, Freneau. Five years later she leaves school and meets Freneau at the theater; his attention having been occupied with her sister-in-law he has forgotten Gloria. Gloria feels that her one dream is shattered. Later Freneau persuades her to forgive him. Gloria's sister-in-law, Lois, becomes intensely jealous and Doctor Royce discovers in her an ally to assist in thwarting Freneau. Doctor Royce warns Freneau that there is another woman besides Gloria. Freneau goes sleighing with Gloria without her father's knowledge. It results in pneumonia for Gloria, whose family becomes incensed at Freneau when they learn the truth. Royce is summoned to alleviate Gloria's suffering.

Freneau was in a pitiable plight. He was about to sink away in despair, when he happened to think to say: "You offered me a reward for the rescuing of Gloria from the Indians. I refused the money then, so I thought that now — perhaps — well — I thought—"

"That's true," said Pierpont. "That suggests a way out of it. Your proposition does not appeal to my business sense, but I can do this. I'll pay you double the reward with compound interest for five years. That will square us up."

Freneau smiled with a renewal of hope, and Stafford wrote him an important check.

Freneau thanked him, promised to return the money, and left the bouquet for Gloria. As he made his way out he met Royce just coming down from Gloria's room. Freneau hated the sight of Royce for many reasons. We usually hate people we have wronged. He managed to ask how Gloria was. Royce said she was better, but not yet out of danger. A curious look came over his face as he added:

"Look here, Freneau, I don't like you a bit, but Gloria loves you a lot. I don't see why, but she does. Women are peculiar. Now, I'd rather break my own heart than hers. She wants you for a husband, and if you'll play fair and walk straight from now on, I'll do nothing to interfere with your plans. But if you play false with her, I'll—well—there's nothing I won't do to save her from you."

Freneau promised glibly that he would be an ideal lover and a model of loyalty. Royce said: "I hope so," without much hope, and "You'd better!" with rather too much emphasis. Still, Freneau had the check in his pocket, and he went back to his office with "the bacon." Mulry made him so welcome that he forgot his new troubles in the radiance of the new business plans.

But his promise to Royce was put to the test at once, for that very afternoon, when he reached his apartment, Lois appeared there. She was heavily veiled, but Freneau's valet seemed to know her. He backed out discreetly. When Lois threw off the shroud her face was terrible in its resolution.

"You shan't marry Gloria, Dick," she said. "You shan't throw me over—not for her? You shan't marry her of all the people in the world."

Freneau was tired of Lois and tired of interference. He forgot to be gentle. He laughed.

"No? And how are you going to stop me?"

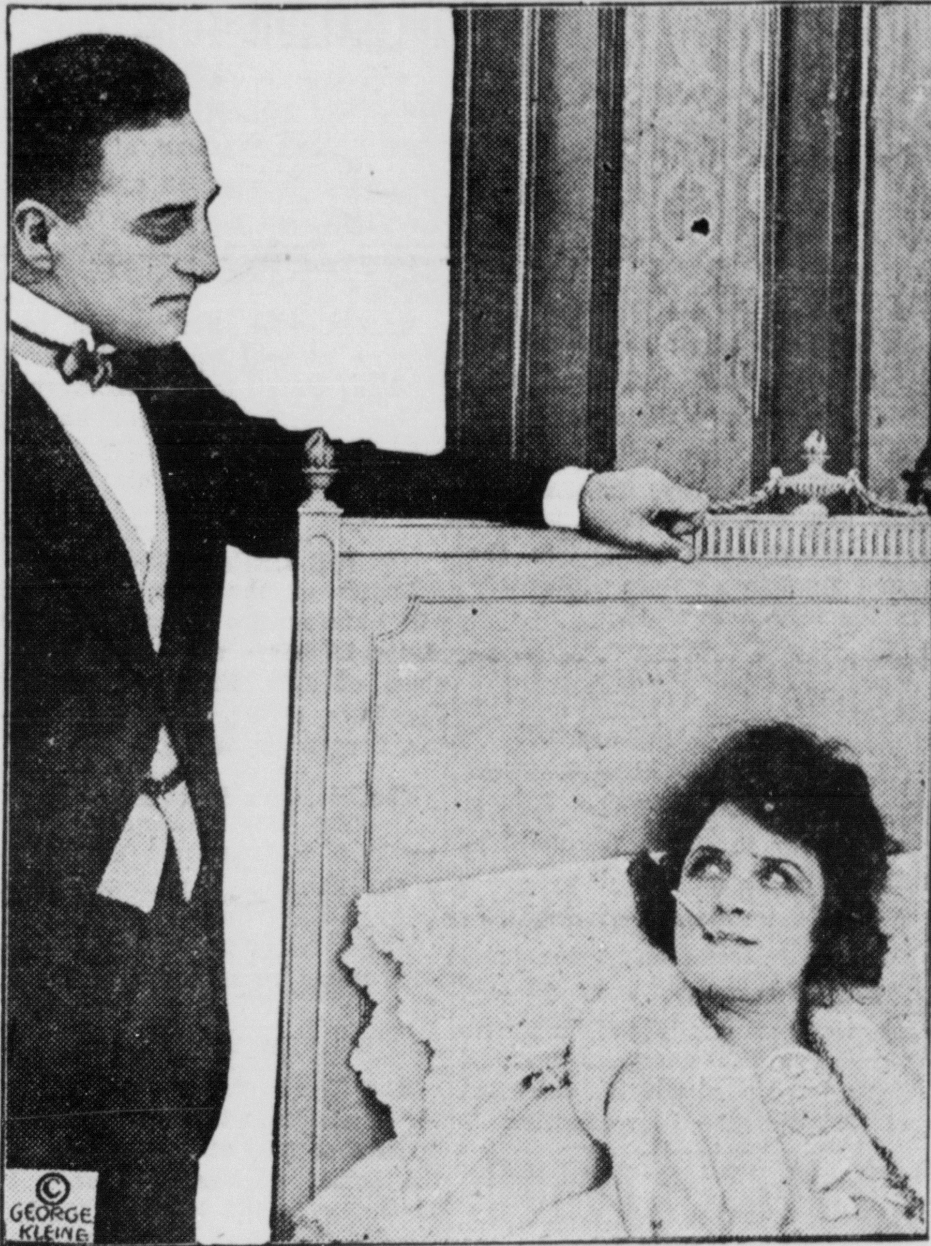

Lois' cold, hard answer bowled him over: "Even Gloria can't be so crazy about you that she would marry you if I were found dead here."

Freneau stared at her aghast. He could not quite be sure of her meaning till he saw a little phial in her hand. He leaped for it. But she dodged round his desk and put it to her lips. "Don't you come near me or you'll wish you hadn't," she cried. "If you take another step I'll swallow this."

Freneau had to temporize with the mad woman. He surrendered weakly and dropped into a chair.

"Listen to me, Lois," he pleaded. "I went to her father to borrow money. I've got to have his support or go bankrupt. If I do that I'll blow my brains out. Of course, I don't love Gloria. My heart is yours. But I can't marry you. If I marry her she won't interfere with your love and mine. We shall be all the safer. If you love me, you won't ruin me. If you don't love me, give me the phial and I'll get out of your way."

She was in so insane a mood of jealousy and longing, that she believed him. She made him swear that he spoke the truth, as if an oath or two meant anything to him. Then she suffered herself to remain his dupe, and he took her down to a taxicab, feeling sure that he was well rid of her.

When she had gone he breathed more easily. He even laughed. He had everybody working for him. His rival, Royce, was toiling to save Gloria's life. His ex-flame, Lois, was in league with him to keep up the deception. Gloria's father was lending him money. He was plainly a child of destiny.

He was so reassured by his luck that he made a holiday with Mulry, who planned to start off at once on a round of the different cities where they had branch offices for the convenience of victims who lived far from New York.

Ignorance may be bliss, but it is not preparedness. Freneau was blissful in the belief that Lois was quieted. He did not dream, nor did she, that David Stafford was awakening. When Freneau took Lois to the taxicab, she lowered her veil, but a veil is only a partial disguise at best, and it may attract attention. Neither Freneau nor Lois noted that a certain Mrs. Coleridge was passing, or that she stared hard. Mrs. Coleridge was one of the prettiest faces in Freneau's pack of discards. She was a sort of female Freneau, but in Freneau she had met her match, because she allowed herself to be more thrilled than thrilling. He had passed on without a long pause before her shrine.

Mrs. Coleridge had seen Freneau with Lois at various tea dances, and she recognized Lois all the more readily for her veil. She was outraged in her finest sensibilities. She felt it her duty to see that Lois was punished. She did not want to appear as a complaining witness, but her righteous indignation carried her to a large hotel in whose writing room she found pen, ink, paper, envelopes, and secrecy. She dashed off a little note to David advising him that his wife was showing more interest than he might approve in a certain heart-breaker. Mrs. Coleridge neglected to sign her name. In fact, she rather disguised her handwriting, though this made little difference, since David did not know it, anyway. She dropped the little letter into a mail-box with the innocent glee of an anarchist slipping a bomb with a time fuse under a millionaire's automobile.

The United States post office authorities carried the loaded letter to David's office for her. He opened it and read it, but could not understand it. He read it again and understood it, but could not believe it. He was about to toss it in the waste-basket, where such missives belong. He read it again. It threw him into a black pit of agony and consternation.

Now, he could, but would not, believe it. He wondered who the "heart-breaker" might be. He remembered that Lois had been fond of Freneau years before. He dismissed this suspicion with contempt. He loathed the letter. Only cowards and mischief-makers write such letters. He threw this one from him as if it were something unclean. Yet the anonymous poison gnawed away in his brain. He clenched and unclenched his hands and paced the floor, beads of perspiration dripping down his face.

At last he fought it out with himself and decided that he would trust Lois till she was proved unworthy. However, the letter seemed to whisper to him, "A little test will do no harm."

Ancient War Automobiles.

Among some interesting documents in the old Bohemian city, Saaz, on the Eger river, is a picture showing an attack on the fortress Glatz, in Silesia, in which war automobiles were used. The mechanically driven cars were flat vehicles, protected by huge shields in front, in which the soldiers turned large cranks, the rotary motion of which was transferred to cog wheels and to the road wheels. It is estimated that these fifteenth century "chauffeurs" got a speed of four miles an hour out of the armored cars.

WASHINGTON WADES INTO HEIRONAMUS

Athletics Win Third Game of Series of Five With Clintons and Have Two Victories to the Clintons' One—Score 11 to 3.

RENO MAKES RECORD NOON CIRCUITS TWICE

Clinton's Powerless Before Athletics' Batting Storm—Biggest Crowd of the Season—Next Game at Wilmington Sunday.

Wading mercilessly into Heironamus' pet twisters, the Athletics Sunday afternoon started a batting storm in the second inning of their third game with the Wilmington Clintons which continued unabated throughout the entire nine frames and resulted in an overwhelming 11-3 victory for the locals.

The largest crowd of the season, estimated at 1,500, thronged Athletic park, and conditions were right for a good strong game of ball, but after the first few minutes of play, the Wilmingtons found themselves powerless to keep the pace set for them by their opponents.

Home runs, three-base hits and two-sackers became as common as houseflies, and the crack of wood on leather amounted almost to a rattle at times. The altitude attained by the Mighty Hi was mightier far than he had been known to reach heretofore; the bells tolled dimly over the Frey position in short field, and the Athletics romped and risked about the diamond as if this were the first time during the season they had been turned loose on a ball field.

Before the game had gone three innings, every strip of canvas around the outfield had been taken down to give place to automobiles, which stretched compactly from bleacher to bleacher, and not a few well-clouted balls were fished from under, inside and behind them.

Reno pitched the entire game for the Athletics and did nobly. Besides, he led his teammates in batting with a perfect percent, getting three hits and a hit-by-pitcher walk in four times up. Noon distinguished himself with two home runs. The only other homer of the game was made by Shrimper, Clinton third sacker, in the first inning and caused a little uneasiness among the Washington fans.

Bill Towel, at second, was the only new member in the local lineup, and acquitted himself very favorably, both in his position and at the bat. There was no player on the Athletic staff, in fact, that did not merit honorable mention.

The series now stands two games to one in favor of Washington. The next game will be played at Wilmington next Sunday. Should Wilmington win this, the deciding game will take place at the city having brought out the largest attendance at any one game, and it is believed Sunday's crowd here will take the ribbon.

IMPROVED CONDITIONS

At Kentucky Carlsbad Hotel, Dry Ridge, Ky.

It will prove of interest to all those who have visited the Kentucky Carlsbad Springs to know that the Hotel has been thoroughly renovated and is "spick and span" from top to bottom. The improved conditions are favorably commented on immediately upon arrival of those who have visited the Springs in the past.

Our system of baths has been wonderfully improved and, under the personal supervision of our Medical Director, we are securing the most wonderful results in the treatment of Rheumatism, Stomach, Kidney and Bladder trouble.

The general service, including meals, has been improved in keeping with the latest electrical and other appliances for the successful treatment of Rheumatism and other troubles of a similar nature.

Those who are unable to come to the Springs can secure the very best of results in Stomach, Kidney and Bladder trouble by the use of the water at home.

Kentucky Carlsbad Water is shipped in cases containing six half gallon bottles of the Natural mineral water. In addition to the above we include, in each case, one small bottle of the water fortified to be used, when required to keep the bowels open, and is very valuable in the treatment of Liver and Intestinal trouble.

To those who use the water at home, according to directions for a period of ten days to two weeks depending on the trouble for which it is taken, we guarantee that they will be satisfied with the relief secured; otherwise, we will refund all the money paid for the water.

We have just issued a new booklet—write for one.

ORE RATES HARD HIT

Inter State Commerce Commission Holds Unreasonable Rates Prevail on Ore Carrying.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, September 5.—Rates on ore from lower Lake Erie points to Ohio, Kentucky, West Virginia, and western Pennsylvania were pronounced generally unreasonable today by the Inter-State Commerce Commission.

Carriers were directed to make separate charges for dock storage and switching services.

The Commission sets up a new grouping, for which maximum rates are provided, and makes it clear that it expects its findings may require some adjustment of the through charges to points not specifically named in the new reasonable maximum rates, and leaves it to the carrier to establish charges to submit to the Commission before December.

The Commission will continue its investigation, and on April 1, by a federal order, will definitely fix the future maximum rates.

COMMISSION ON THE WAY

Mexican and American Members Leave for Meeting Place on the Mayflower.

New York, September 5.—The Mexican and American joint commission which will undertake to settle international differences left today on the presidential yacht Mayflower, for New London, Conn., where the first conference will be held tomorrow.

FESS ONLY OHIO MAN AGAINST BILL

Washington, Sept. 5.—Representative Simon D. Fess was the only Ohio member of the House who voted today against the eight-hour law for railroad brotherhood employees, which is being rushed through as a means of avoiding a strike.

Representatives Longworth, Matthews, Kearns, Switzer and Emerson were not recorded as voting. The other 16 members all voted for the bill.

Dr. Fess made a speech explaining his course. He said he was for an eight-hour day. "I cannot vote for this measure," he said, "because we foreclose the possibility of arbitration when an inevitable conflict will come again. No man is so blind as to think that this temporary measure is going to settle the controversy."

STATE AND FEDERAL OFFICERS HUNT FOR ESCAPED PLOTTER, FAY

LIEUT. ROBERT FAY

State and federal officers are making a nation wide search for Lieutenant Robert Fay, the German bomb plotter, and William Knobloch, who escaped from the federal prison in Atlanta under the disguise of electricians. Warden Zerbst of the Atlanta penitentiary said that the escape of Fay and Knobloch was the result of a carefully worked out plot and that their apprehension is going to prove difficult. No traces have been found of the famous prisoners. "Fay was a man of too much intelligence," said Warden Zerbst, "and he was too shrewd to have attempted such an escape unless he was certain that the necessary arrangements had been made to take care of him and his companion after he reached safety from the guns of the guards." The escape of Fay and Knobloch was executed by a clever forgery. The two men, who had been working as electricians about the prison, appeared before an inner guard with a forged pass which admitted them to the new prison wing upon which 100 men work each day. They pretended they were to repair a number of lights about the grounds. Fay, convicted in New York for conspiracy in connection with bomb plots against merchant vessels carrying munitions to the allies, was placed in the prison here on June 23, 1916, to serve a term of eight years. He is a native of Germany. He had been in this country about six months when convicted. He is thirty-six years old, but looks to be about thirty. He is of medium build, five feet ten and three-quarters inches in height, weighs 165 pounds has light brown hair, blue eyes, fair complexion, and when he escaped was wearing a mustache. He is slightly bald—a small spot—on top of his head. He is a mechanical engineer. Knobloch was convicted in Baltimore May 9, 1916.

DR. HUFFMAN NEAR TO DEATH

Occulist Who Tried to Cure Himself By Fasting Reported Dying.

DEMOCRATS NAME ORATORS

Bryan, Marshall Kern and James Among Notables Who Will Stump State.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., September 5.—

Chairman DeWeese of the Democratic State Speakers' Bureau has announced that Former Governor Cox will follow his yesterday's Labor Day speech at Nelsonville, with speeches at Zanesville, Friday; and at Logan, Saturday.

Other nationally known speakers who are expected to appear in the Ohio Democratic campaign are Representative Oscar Underwood, Alabama; William Jennings Bryan; Vice President Marshall; Senator Kern, Indiana; Senator Ollie James, Kentucky; Senator Fletcher, Florida; Senator Salusbury, Delaware; Senator Hollis, New Hampshire. Secretaries McAdoo and Daniels and Attorney General Gregory, of the President's cabinet, are also expected to speak in this state.

BAN ON BOATS OF SUB-TYPE

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, September 5.—To the proposal of the Entente Allies that neutrals accept the principle that all submarines are vessels of war, the United States has dispatched a reply which, it is understood, holds to the principle that the characteristics of each individual submarine must govern the case.

At the same time, advices were received that Norway, Sweden and Spain had forbidden their harbors to merchant submarines, on the ground that they were indistinguishable from war craft.

EXECUTIVE CLEMENCY

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., September 5.—Governor Willis today extended executive clemency to eleven prisoners in state institutions.

Among them were Bert and John Eubanks, of Ross county, convicted in 1912 of burglary and larceny. They were serving indeterminate sentences in the state penitentiary.

Both were pardoned on condition that they support their families.
